OBITUARY

Calvin Jerome Johnson, affectionately known as "Noodie," was the youngest of six children born to the union of Herman Johnson Jr. and Fannie Bell on November 5, 1967, in Houston, Texas.

At an early age, Calvin gave his life to Christ. He was baptized in Jesus' name and received the gift of the Holy Ghost at Faith Temple Church under the leadership of Suffragan Bishop Anthony Alcorn Sr.

On November 7, 1987, Calvin married Jennifer Tyler, and their union was blessed with two beloved daughters.

Calvin received his formal education in the North Forest School District, attending Roger Elementary School, Northwood Middle School and graduating from Forest Brook High School.

His professional career included positions at Sears Service Center, First City National Bank, and the City of Houston's Health and Human Services Department. He later joined his father, Herman Johnson Jr., and his brother, Ray Johnson in their family business, Unique Filter Service. With an entrepreneurial spirit, Calvin eventually branched out on his own and established his business, E & J Filter Service.

Calvin departed this life on Thursday, October 15, 2026. He was preceded in death by his father, Herman Johnson Jr.; his mother, Fannie Bell; and his brother, Michael.

Calvin leaves to cherish his precious memory his two daughters, Eboni Broussard (Sean) and Jasmine Johnson (Dimishun); two sisters, Lillian Faye and Linda Faye; and two brothers, Roy Lee Sr. (Lola) and Ray Sr. (Beverly). He also leaves behind five cherished grandchildren: Armani, Erin, Dimishun Jr., India, and Domani; and his beloved grandpup, Bentley.

He will also be lovingly remembered by his last surviving uncle, Levon Thompson; Jasmine C., whom he loved as a daughter; Quincy, Lisa, and Timecia, who were like family; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

Calvin's love, laughter, kindness, and unforgettable presence will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. Though he is no longer with us in body, his legacy will live on through the lives he touched and the family he cherished.

EXPRESSIONS OF LOVE

EBONI

What an honor it has been to call you, my dad. I'm going to miss your sweet smile, our laughs, your calls, silly texts, and hugs. You brought me so much joy with your spoiled self.

Whenever I was worried, you were the first person I called. I can still hear you saying, "Eb, believe in me. This is going to work." You always found a way.

You were everything to me and no words could ever express how much I love you. I'll cherish our memories forever and carry your love with me always.

My heart hurts knowing I won't hear your voice or see your smile again, but I pray you're finally resting in peace. I hope you knew just how deeply you were loved.

Until we meet again, King.

Love always,
Eb

JASMINE

Dad,

I am going to miss you more than words could ever explain. School mornings will never be the same without you sitting in your green chair on the porch with your coffee, making sure me, Indy, DJ, and even Dimishun made it to work and school safely. It's the little things you did every day that I will miss the most.

Even at 32 years old, I was still your scary baby girl, and you were always there to protect me and make sure I was okay. I will forever cherish the laughs, our memories, and the special bond we shared, especially having the same birthday. Having the same birthday as you were always a bond that belongs to just us. Our birthday will never be the same without you, but I will carry that special connection with me forever.

I will forever be grateful that God chose you to be my dad. Get your rest, Big Boy. You deserve it. I hope you know how much you are loved until we meet again.

Love always,
Your baby girl, Jazz

THE GRANDCHILDREN

Dear Paw Paw,

We will miss you more than words can express. We'll miss your hugs, our trips to the store, you coming to football games and cheering us on, cooking our favorite foods, and taking us to school. Indy will especially miss you getting her on and off the bus.

Thank you for all the love, memories, and special moments you gave us. You will forever hold a special place in our hearts.

Love always,
Armani, Erin, DJ, and Indy

FAYE

In loving memory of Cal (My baby brother Noodie). I will always have his voice/songs with me. I hope that I was the only one called "sugarputt". And even if I was not, they did not get birthday songs sung to them like I did. I have them all especially the one that said, "I ain't gonna be singing no two days so don't you pick up this phone". The sweetest voice sang every 21st of March. But no worries because I will play them as though you called on that day.

With loving memories your Big sister Faye

LINDA

I lost my brother Calvin, and my heart is shattered. I'm going to miss him so deeply. He was my world we talked almost every day, and if I didn't hear from him, I'd start calling, when he finally answered, I'd say, "why haven't I heard from you?" and he'd reply, "Because you haven't called". Then we'd laugh like we always did. He had all these sweet, funny nicknames for me Black Georg, Potato Pie, Bubble Gum, Stinker, and so many more. I'm going to miss hearing him say those. And every time he went to pick up his grandbaby, India from the bus stop, he would call me while he waited. Those little moments meant everything to me. I'm going to miss him more than words can ever explain.

(Love your baby Sister Linda)
