

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul,
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies,
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life,
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Pallbearers

Family & Friends

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Terrance Hunter acknowledges with sincere appreciation, your understanding, your prayers, and all acts of kindness shown at this time of bereavement.

Professional Services By James H. Hunt Funeral Home
126 Ridge Ave, Asbury Park, NJ 07712
Kevin L. Small, Manager NJ Lic #4880
www.jhhunt.com

Sunrise
December 28, 1962

Sunset
January 4, 2016

In Loving Memory Of

Terrance Hunter

Tuesday, January 12, 2016
11:00 AM

Mount Hermon Baptist Church
1170 Nelson Ave, Bronx, New York

Pastor Kenneth L. Hunter, Officiating

Order of Service

Organ Prelude

Processional
Family and Clergy

Congregational Hymn
"Blessed Assurance"

Prayer of Comfort
Deacon Lucious Reid, Jr.

Scripture Reading
Mr. John Hunter
Old Testament
New Testament

Selection
United Voices of Mt. Hermon
Prof. William H. Collins

Reflections
Friends
Family: Mr. Vernon Hunter
(two minutes please)

Acknowledgements & Obituary
Ms. Deborah Morris

Selection
United Voices of Mt. Hermon
Prof. William H. Collins

Eulogy
Pastor Kenneth L. Hunter
Beacon Lighthouse of Prayer
Detroit, Michigan

Benediction
Pastor Kenneth Hunter

Recessional

Obituary

Terrance Hunter was the youngest son of Mrs. Cora Hunter and the late William V. Hunter. Terrance began his sunrise on December 28, 1962 in New York City and entered eternal rest in Glory with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Monday, January 4, 2016.

Terrance graduated from the Julia Richman High School and matriculated at the Boro of Manhattan Community College. His career included many years in marketing research as well as the retail market at both Bloomingdales and Macy's Department Stores.

Terrance was an avid sports fan especially for the New York Jets Football Team and the New York Mets Baseball Team. His extensive knowledge of these sports and related statistics would have impressed the most seasoned sportscaster.

Another passion of his was cooking. He enjoyed preparing the annual family holiday feasts. He was a fantastic cook, "oh boy" could he mess up a kitchen! Right about now Terrance would be planning the menu for his Super Bowl party, a gathering that his family and friends looked forward to each year.

Terrance was a very kind hearted individual. If wronged, he did not hold grudges, but would forgive quickly and move on. He was a quick witted, fun loving person. He was a devoted son, brother and uncle who loved his family and adored his nieces and nephews. He loved to see them happy. While we will surely miss him, we are comforted by the belief that his Soul is in Heaven, and that we will see him again. We believe this because many years ago he publicly acknowledged and gave his life to Jesus Christ. The ancestors and saints have joyously welcomed him Home.

He was predeceased by his father, William V. Hunter; and loving sister, Yasmine Hunter-Brown. Terrance is survived by his loving mother, Cora Hunter; best friend and brother, Daren; brother and caretaker, Vernon; and loving brothers, Ronald and Reginald Hunter; sisters, Diane and Gwendolyn; and a host of cousins, relatives and friends.

