

Daniel was born on December 6, 1948, to his parents, Ysmael and Maria Luna Salas. He married the love of his life, Lynda Olivarez, in Goodland, Kansas, on December 23, 1974. Daniel adored Lynda—she was his reason for being, his everything—and he cherished every moment they spent together, no matter where they were.

The only devotion greater than his love for Lynda was his devotion to the Lord. Daniel was truly a man of God and was a member of Accelerate Church, where he joyfully shared his faith with everyone he met. Known for his hearty laugh, love of dancing, and remarkable ability to build almost anything, Daniel lived life with purpose and joy. He could often be found with a cup of coffee in hand, always ready to share the love of God and encourage those around him. He cherished the role of Popo to his grandchildren and great grandchildren by blood and by love.

He was preceded in death by his late parents Ysmael Davila Salas and Maria Luna Salas; brother Samuel Salas; sisters Estefania “Fannie” Salas Hernandez, Lilly Vargas, Sylvia “Blanca” Garza, Linda “Mode” Rios, Olivia Salas, Granddaughter Ericka Jo Olivarez, Grandson Elijah Santiago’s, Granddaughter Alexis “Lexi” Lopez, Grandson Lawrence Hart.

Daniel leaves behind his wife Lynda Salas; two sons, David Edward Salas and his wife Alice and Danny “Bebo” Salas; four daughters, Denice Salas, Libby Kelley and husband Kenneth, Jolene Santiago, and Kasie Salas and her husband Cedric. Many Grandkids and Great Grandkids.

Psalm 91

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart. You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.

If you say, "The Lord is my refuge," and you make the Most High your dwelling, no harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone. You will tread on the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent.

"Because he loves me," says the Lord, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name. He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him. With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation."
