The essence of his life

Jamsie Edward Joe, affectionately known as “BayBay” was born March 13, 1956 in Lee County to the late Moise and Odessa Jackson-Joe. On Friday, March 20, 2026 after a long prosperous life of seventy (70) glorious years, God summoned him, in his immeasurable wisdom to be in his presence in Glory. He made his transition at Prisma Health Tuomey Hospital, surrounded by his loving family. In his early life, he was educated in Lee County public schools. After school, he straight into the work field to provide and take care of his family. For over twenty plus years, he was a dedicated logger with skilled work ethics that was committed and faithful in every aspect the company needed him. He was a family man. BayBay loved spending time outside sitting on the porch talking trash and joking with others. He enjoyed making memories and sharing laughter with his family, but mostly his grandchildren. The life of the party, a gentle giant with a caring heart, would make sure everyone was alright. If there was something he could do for you, he would, even if he had to ask his siblings to help him just so he could help you. It never was a dull moment with him, that was just him.

BayBay accepted the Lord as his personal Savior at a young age in the family home church, Mt. Calvary Holiness Church. As he grew stronger in the faith served the will of the God, he later became a member of Weeping Mary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Pastor Johnny Blythers. A God-fearing man who had faith like no other, joy like no other, and his praise was like no other, that was just him. If you knew BayBay, you knew he loved him some Terrie. If you saw one, you saw the other, a reflection of their love and devotion. They found happiness in riding around checking on family and spending meaningful time with friends and loved ones. More than anything, they cherished each other’s presence and spending time out with their grands.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Moise Joe and Odessa Jackson-Joe; his sisters, Thelma Burris and Bessie Halley; his brothers, Larry Joe, Johnny Joe, Willie Green and Lucious Green, and his grandson, Jermaine Brisbon Jr.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories and love, his common law wife, Terrie Pougé; his son, Jermaine Brisbon Sr.; children he raised as his own, Latrinedy Brisbon and Sharyon Brisbon; his sisters, Mary Charles, Bernice (Kevin) Boykin, Thelma (John) Hickmon and Welma Joe; his brother, Wooddrow (Geneva) Joe; fifteen grandchildren; one greatgrand child, and host of loving nephews, nieces, family and friends that will miss him dearly.
