

A Final Farewell

Though our hearts are heavy with sorrow, we find comfort in knowing that Rodney's life was a blessing to all who knew him.

His quiet strength, gentle spirit, and unwavering love for his family will continue to inspire those he leaves behind. While his earthly journey has come to an end, his legacy lives on in the hearts of his children, grandchildren, family, and friends.

May we honor his memory by extending the same kindness he so freely gave, cherishing the moments we shared, and carrying his love with us always.

"Your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure. You are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure. Rest peacefully, Rodney, until we meet again."

His Story

Rodney Alan Daye was born on March 17, 1963, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to the late Shirley Lassiter and Nathaniel Daye Jr. He was the second of their children and was raised with the values of family, perseverance, and kindness that would remain with him throughout his life.

Rodney was educated in the Philadelphia Public School System, attending Kenderton Elementary School, Gillespie Junior High School, and Roxborough High School. During his school years, he excelled both academically and athletically, lettering in track and field, football, and his favorite sport, wrestling.

Rodney dedicated many years of faithful service to University of Pennsylvania Hospital in Food Service. His commitment, strong work ethic, and professionalism earned the respect of those who had the privilege of working alongside him.

Known for his gentle spirit and kind heart, Rodney had a quiet strength that touched everyone who knew him. His warmth, compassion, and genuine nature left a lasting impression on family, friends, and all whose lives he encountered.

He leaves to cherish his memory his two brothers, Nathaniel Daye III and Anthony "Daud" Daye; his three sons, Rodney Daye Jr., Demarcus Daye, and Terrell Daye; and his cherished grandchildren: Nahira Daye, Zahmyr Daye, Autumn Daye, Jasai Daye, Jaydin Daye, Jabir Daye, and Demarcus Daye Jr. He also leaves behind a host of extended family members, dear friends, and loved ones who will forever treasure the memories they shared with him.
