

Therefore we are always confident
knowing that,
whilst we are at home in the body,
we are absent from the Lord.
(For we walk by faith & not by sight.)

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body:

and to be present with the Lord

Wherefore we labor that,
whether present or absent, we may be accepted

of Him
- II Corinthians 5:6-9

Obituary

Know that I am free. Don't grieve or be in sorrow, as I have followed the path that God laid for me. I heard the Lord call and took His hand. I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day. I will miss all the laughter, love, and play. But I am with the Joy of the Lord. I found peace at the close of the day.

Don't let my parting leave a void. Just fill it with remembered joy. Do not be burdened with times of sorrow. I pray for you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life has been full. I have savoured much, good friends, a loving family, and a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time has seemed too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me, God wanted me now, He has set me free.

My flesh and my heart fail; but
is the strength of my God
heart
and my portion forever.
