Sleep on, Brother Dear

I wish you sweet sleep, my brother dear. although there's so much that you've left bare,
I want to know what crossed your mind unspoken words you've left behind
Undone things we'll never do- no sharing thoughts you never knew.
A peace has fallen upon your head -a taste of sorrow we have been fed.

It really is like a hole in our lives -one swiftly dug but carved out by knives.
But I have hope that those sleeping will rise the Bible says that God will open their eyes.
No suffering, sickness, yes not even pain, those who did good, eternal life they'll gain.
So... sleep on my brother, get your rest For God alone always knows what's best.

Acknowledgements

We acknowledge the flowers you sent today, the cards you mailed along the way, the services you stopped to render, the gifts you brought with thoughts so tender, the prayers you said, which played a part in easing the pain, and helped us to find the strength to bear the loss of one held so dear. So, from our hearts, thank you sincerely again and again for being such truly wonderful friends during the Homegoing of our beloved James Arthur Tribble.

His Life - His Story

JANUARY 5, 1952

AUGUST 10, 2026

Mr. James Arthur Tribble

was born on January 5th, 1952, in Laurens County, South Carolina, to the late R.D. Tribble, Sr. and Bessie Turner.

He attended the public schools of Laurens, South Carolina, including Sanders High School.

James was a jack of all trades working at Bedenbaugh, helping on the farm, as well as doing other tasks around the community.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one son, Tyrone Dendy; two sisters: Virginia T. Williams and Elaine T. Davenport; and two brothers: R.D. Tribble, Jr. and Willie James Tribble.

Once again, the chain was broken on Sunday, August 9, 2026, when James Arthur Tribble entered a restful place called Eternity at Chandler Creek Post Acute in Greer, South Carolina at the age of seventy-four.

He leaves to cherish his fond memories, three sisters: Bessie Mae Robinson of Newberry, SC, Betty T. (Kenneth) Rysavy of Laurens, SC, and Patricia (Levester) Hill of Fountain Inn, SC; four brothers: Otis (Roberta Lewis) Tribble of Cross Hill, SC, Bobby (Betty Jean) Tribble and Bennie Tribble both of Laurens, SC, and Charles Tribble of Spartanburg, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends whose friendship he treasured throughout his life.
