LIFE STORY

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

Lavonnia Denise Hatcher Livingston was born in Madison, Florida, on September 12, 1974. She was the beloved daughter of the late Isreal "Lightbread" Livingston, Jr. and Rutha Mae Demps. Affectionately known as "Denise," she was raised in Greenville, Florida, where she developed the strong family values, loving spirit, and outgoing personality that would become hallmarks of her life. Though she later made Orlando, Florida, her home for more than twenty years, Greenville always remained close to her heart.

Denise embraced life with enthusiasm and joy. She was a people person who never met a stranger and had a special gift for making others feel welcome. Her laughter was contagious, her smile was unforgettable, and her presence could brighten any room. Family and friends knew her as someone who loved deeply, spoke honestly, and always offered encouragement when it was needed most.

Family was the center of Denise's world. As the second child in her immediate household, she took her role as a big sister seriously and was fiercely protective of those she loved. On April 16, 2008, she united in holy matrimony with Joseph Hatcher, Jr., and together they built a loving marriage that flourished for seventeen years. Their greatest joy was their son, Skyler Hatcher, who was the pride of her life and the source of countless smiles.

Denise believed in the value of hard work and service to others. She faithfully dedicated more than twenty years of her life to the United States Department of Justice, Bureau of Prisons, serving at the Coleman Federal Correctional Complex. She took great pride in her profession and developed lasting relationships with coworkers whom she considered family. Her compassion, wisdom, and willingness to listen made her a trusted confidant and friend to many.

Outside of her career, Denise enjoyed making memories with those she loved. She looked forward to attending concerts and comedy shows, taking cruises, traveling, listening to music, and spending time with family and friends. She especially enjoyed trips to the casino, where loved ones often joked that she had a special talent for winning. Wherever there was an opportunity to laugh, celebrate, or create a lasting memory, Denise was sure to be there.

Surrounded by the love of her family, Denise peacefully departed this life on Friday, May 22, 2026. While her physical presence will be deeply missed, the memories she created and the love she shared will remain forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

“The life of the dead is placed in the memory of the living.”

Loved ones who will continue to cherish the life, love, and legacy of Lavonna Denise Hatcher Livingston are her devoted husband of seventeen years, Joseph Hatcher, Jr. of Orlando, Florida; her beloved son, Skyler Hatcher of Orlando, Florida; her brother and partner in crime, Isreal Livingston III of Greenville, Florida; and her sister, LaEbony Livingston of Silver Spring, Maryland.

She also leaves to cherish her memory her special niece and adopted daughter, Quaniesha Bellany; her godson, Kyi'Avian Ghent; her godsister, Tiarhonda Powell; her goddaughter, Chiquila Pleas; her niece, Nakia Payne; her nephew, Darius Payne; her great-nephew, Rennix Livingston; her stepchildren, Laquanda, Martresha, Joseph, Shon, and Joshua; special friends, Vanessa Wilson and Amy Brasby; her aunts, Nadine Williams (Robert), Cora Demps, Glynaveous Powell (John), and Ruby Noble (William); her uncles, Jimmy Livingston (Beulah) and Henry Livingston (Carolyn); along with a host of beloved cousins, extended family members, coworkers, and dear friends.

Preceding Denise in death were her father, Isreal “Lightbread” Livingston, Jr., and her beloved sister, Shebretia Livingston.

To My Godmother, With Love

You were more than family - you were a shelter, a gentle hand when life felt heavy, a voice that told me not to give up when I could no longer find strength on my own.
You opened your heart and mind, giving me comfort when I needed a place to belong.

You believed in me before I believed in myself,
and carried me through storms I thought would break me.

You gave me courage to dream, to stand tall, and to begin again.

Because of you, I found strength. Because of you, I found hope.

Now our hearts ache in the silence you left behind.

The world feels softer and sadder without your light.

But your love remains in every lesson, every memory, and every step I take.

Though tears fall because we miss you, gratitude rises because we were blessed to know you.

Rest peacefully, Denise. Your love was a gift, and your memory will live forever.

Love,
Your Goddaughter,
~ Chiquila Pleas

I Am There

Do not stand at my grave and weep,

I am not there; I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,

I am the diamond glints on snow.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circling flight.

Do not stand at my grave and cry;

I am not there.

I did not die.
