

TO MY FAMILY

If you are reading this, then I am finally at peace. Please do not hold onto only the pain of losing me. Remember the laughter, the stories, the hard lessons, the rides, the music, and all the moments we shared together. Those are the pieces of me I hope live on in your hearts forever.

I know I was not perfect, but every day I loved my family in the best way I knew how. Watching all of you grow, laugh, argue, heal, and become who you are meant the world to me. Nothing could ever replace the love I carried for each of you.

To the children and grandchildren, never forget where you come from. Be strong, stand tall, and take care of one another. Life is short, and time moves faster than we think. Love while you can. Forgive while you can. Say the words while people are still here to hear them.

Do not let grief separate you. Let it bring you closer. Hold onto each other for me. Laugh together for me. Tell my stories even if they make you cry at first. One day those tears will turn into smiles.

And whenever you hear music playing or think about those old family moments together, know that I am somewhere smiling too.

Thank you for loving me through every season of my life. Thank you for the memories, the prayers, the forgiveness, and the love.

This is not goodbye forever.
Just until we meet again.

With all my love,
Daddy / Papa

RONALD "WOO-WOO" MOTTE

12-13-1972 - 5-12-26

HIS STORY

On May 12, 2026, God called His faithful servant, Ronald Wayne Motte Jr., affectionately known as “Woo Woo,” from labor to eternal rest. His earthly work was complete, and God called him home to rest peacefully in His loving arms.

Ronald Wayne Motte Jr. was born on December 13, 1972, in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, to Peggy Adkins and Ronnie Motte. At an early age, Ronald gave his life to Christ under the leadership of Pastor Kenny Rice at St. Matthew’s Church in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, where his faith and foundation in God were firmly rooted.

Ronald attended Okmulgee High School and later attended TCC, where he obtained his GED. He was known for his warm heart, sense of humor, and the love he showed to everyone around him. Whether through laughter, conversation, or simply his presence, Woo Woo had a way of making people feel welcomed, loved, and at ease.

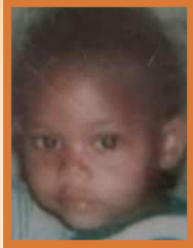

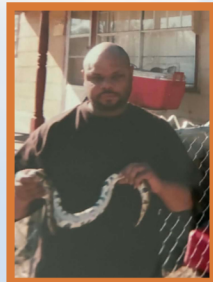

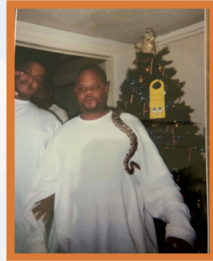

In 1986, Ronald met Misha in Tulsa, Oklahoma. What started as a friendship quickly became a connection neither of them forgot. The two spent countless hours talking on the phone, not realizing that calls from Okmulgee to Tulsa were considered long distance at the time. One day, Misha’s mother received a phone bill for over $400 — a story the family would laugh about for years to come.

Although life took them on separate paths for a time, they found their way back to one another in 2006. Their friendship blossomed into a deep and lasting love, and in 2008 they were united in marriage. Together, Ronald and Misha built a life rooted in love, loyalty, understanding, and perseverance. Through every joy, challenge, trial, and triumph, they remained side by side as husband and wife.

They shared 20 beautiful years together and 18 years of marriage before God called Ronald home in May 2026. Their love story was one of commitment, resilience, laughter, and unconditional love.

Ronald was prece to cherish his memory his loving wife, Misha Motte; his children, Ronnecia Motte, Tara Motte, Ti’Re Motte, Jasmine Montgomery, T.J. Motte, Daisha Davis, Makayla Woods, Trimyah Taylor, and Ronald Motte IV; 13 grandchildren; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, uncles, aunts, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever treasure the memories they shared with him.

Though our hearts are heavy, we find comfort in knowing Ronald is now resting peacefully in the arms of the Lord. His love, laughter, and memory will live on forever in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
