ONE AT REST

*Think of me as one at rest, for me you should not weep.
I have no pain – no troubled thoughts for I am just asleep.*

*The living thinking me that was, is now forever still,
And life goes on without me now, as time forever will.*

*If your heart is heavy now because I've gone away,
Dwell not long upon it, friend, for none of us can stay.*

*Those of you who liked me, I sincerely thank you all,
And those of you who loved me, I thank you most of all.*

*And in my fleeting lifespan, as time went rushing by
I found some time to hesitate, to laugh, to love, to cry.*

*Matters it now if time began if time will ever cease?
I was here, I used it all, and now I am at peace.*

Celebrating the Life of Rosa Nance Scott

Deaconess Rosa Lee Nance Scott was born October 8th, 1951, to Willie Rufus Nance and Clara Irby Nance.

She attended the public schools of Laurens County, South Carolina and was a graduate of the Sanders High School Class of 1969.

She was a faithful member of Rocky Springs Baptist Church in Laurens, South Carolina where she served as a Deaconess and on the Missionary Ministry. She continuously showed much love, compassion, and commitment in her service until her health began to fail.

Rosa Lee was employed at Palmetto Spinning in Laurens, South Carolina until its closing. She later retired after many years employment with National Healthcare.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Eddie Scott; three brothers: John H. Nance, J. B. Nance, and Willie Nance Jr.; and two sisters: Mamie McDowell and Mary Alice Nance.

On Thursday, July 16, 2026, Mrs. Rosa Lee Nance Scott transitioned from her life here on earth to her Eternal home at the age of seventy-four.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories, the love of her life- her son, Eric (Latoya) Johnson of Greenville, SC; four grandchildren: Shimeak Johnson (whom she loved dearly), LaPorche Hudgens, Peatris Hudgens, and Portez Hudgens; six great grandchildren; one niece reared in the home, Mary McDowell; two sisters-in-law: Peggy H. Nance and Jacquelyn Nance; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Rosa Lee leaves a rich and everlasting legacy, and she will be missed greatly.

A Life Well Lived, Always Remembered

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Reunited

She knew her life was through
But wasn't scared to die.
She closed her pain filled eyes
Her final breath a sigh.

Then her husband took her hand
And whispered, "Welcome Dear.
It's been so very long, My Love –
we won't be parted here!"

My First Teacher

You held my hand through every storm,
And taught me how to stand.
You gave me strength to face the world,
And always understand.
You were my guide, my quiet rock,
The first one to believe in me.
Everything I am today,
Is because of what you taught me to be.
The lessons that you gently shared,
The love you gave so free,
Are written in the man I am,
Your greatest legacy.
Rest easy now, my dearest Mama,
Though we must say goodbye,
Your guidance lives within my heart,
Where your love will never die.

*Love Always,
Your Devoted Son, Eric*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair, perhaps you spoke the kindest words a person could say, perhaps you were not there at all, but thought of us each day. Whatever you did to help console our hearts, we thank you so very much, whatever the part. Your comforting expressions of sympathy will always be held in grateful remembrance. Thank you sincerely for caring and sharing. May God continue to keep you in His everlasting care.
