Remember Me

To the living, I am gone
To the sorrowful, I will never return
To the angry, I was cheated
But to the happy, I am at peace
And to the faithful, I have never left

I cannot speak, but I can listen
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard
So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea, as you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity, Remember me

Remember me in your heart: your thoughts, and your memories of the time we loved, the times we cried, the times we fought, the times we laughed. For if you always remember me I will never have gone

Obituary

Eddie James Clayton was born on December 16, 1976 in Chicago, Illinois. He was born to Peggy Clayton and Eddie Thomas. He accepted Christ at an early age.

Ed attended Englewood High School followed by Backfield College. He enjoyed spending time with his friends, and most importantly his family and kids. There was nothing that he wouldn't do to help anyone. Eddie was the sweetest person ever known. He was loving, caring and strong.

He was a "Men of Many Hatz." Just to name a few things he loved playing card games, spades, dancing and especially playing poker at the casino. Eddie loved his music. He would sit up all day listening to music. He loved to talk about knowledge to everyone!

Ed loved him some chicken matter of fact one of his nicknames was chicken man. You may have also known him as Monster, lil Eddie, Bosshogg, Smokey, Ole boi, Chicago, and Don Cino.

On August 08, 2024 Eddie was called home. He is preceded in death by his father, Eddie Thomas; cousin, Jermaine Pulley Sr.; two aunties, Naomi Lyons; Diane Pulley; uncle, Avorn Thomas. Who he left to mourn, his mother, Peggy Clayton; his fiancée, Tiffany Austin; sister, Yvonne Merchant; brother, Kareem Clayton Sr.; brother in law, Theodore Merchant; three children, Aaron Clayton Sr., Marquay'via Clayton, Elijah Clayton; one step daughter, Dametra Vance; aunt, Delois; eight nieces, Antoinette, Lynette, Tesha, Keshia, Teonca, Precious, Deja, Jada; one nephew, Kareem Jr.; three grandchildren, Ava, Aaron Jr., Sema'j, and a host of cousins, great nieces, great nephews, and friends.

Cousin Rob said, " Make sure they playing Krystal in heaven, love you cuz!". We know his legacy of kindness will live on through his loving family.
