Parents

*My Farther was a carpenter and stood on sawdust carpets as he fashioned wood.
He taught us lines must measure true, to use three nails instead of two,
and he had a special rule: we read before we started school.*

My mother, on the other hand, was always ever in demand, planning programs, making floats, rearranging words and notes, and she gathered stars and flowers to adorn us in our brighter hours.

They were different, yet the same, for one designed the picture, as the other made the frame.

By: Shirly Howard

Appreciation is expressed by the family to the many friends and relatives who have been so kind in thought and deed and for your attendance at these services today. Thank you!
