

A Little While

Fill not your heart with pain and sorrow,
but remember me in every tomorrow...
remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles,
I've only gone to rest a little while.

Although my leaving causes pain & grief
my going has eased my hurt and given me relief.

So dry your eyes and remember me, not as I am now, but as I used to be.

Because I will remember you all and look on with a smile.

Understand in your hearts
I've only gone to rest a little while.

Obituary

Abbie Jean Clark Evans was born on June 17, 1945, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Joan Clara Evans and Edward T. Trumbo. She grew up in the Walnut Hills area and attended Catholic schools.

Abbie was known for being sassy, sharp, and full of personality, with a great sense of humor. She was well-liked and loved by her children, family, and friends and was affectionately known as “Miss Jean.” Abbie also had a helping hand and was always willing to assist others.

Throughout her working years, Abbie was employed at convenience and department stores before furthering her education and becoming a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA). She worked as a CNA for 30 years before retiring at the age of 72.

Abbie was the mother of four children. She was preceded in death by her son, Donte Evans, as well as her mother, father, brother, and sister.

She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Lynette Evans, and sons, Lavon (Robin) Evans and Maurice Evans; one brother, Gary; seven grandchildren, Iisha, Juandez, Javea, Shawnee, Tajuan, Dashae, and Nikeya; seven great-grandchildren, Mykwon, Ayanna, Javea Jr., Trevea, Java, Carter, and Onyx; two great-great-grandchildren, Amariyae and Bre'iyla; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

A Mother

is someone who can take the place of everyone else,
but no one in the world can take her place.
