CELEBRATING The Life & Love

Princess Ka'Niylah Rena Hodge was born on March 29, 2016, to her loving parents Kadjia Hodge and Nathian Pratt. Ka'Niylah was a bright, beautiful, and talented little girl who attended R. E. Davis Elementary School. She had a smile that could light up any room and a personality full of love, joy, and creativity.

Ka'Niylah, lovingly known as "Peanut," enjoyed writing, reading, drawing, and making bracelets for the people she loved. She had a kind heart, a creative spirit, and brought happiness to everyone around her. Whether she was laughing, creating art, or spending time with family, Ka'Niylah made every moment special. She was deeply loved by her family, friends, classmates, and everyone who had the blessing of knowing her.

Ka'Niylah leaves behind precious memories to be cherished forever by her mother, Kadjia Hodge; her fathers, Nathian Pratt and Mark Taylor Jr.; her siblings: Kali Richardson, Khari Richardson, Kacey Hodge, Ki'Oni Fordham, Khristian Taylor, Aiden Pratt, and Aniya Pratt; her loving aunts: Makeyia Hodge, Keshia Broughton, and Marissa Pratt; her uncles: Jhrode Hodge and Tray Wilson; her grandmothers, Thelma Hodge and Roda Pratt; and her devoted godmother, Linda McDonald, along with a host of cousins, extended family members, friends, teachers, and loved ones who will miss her dearly.

Ka'Niylah departed this earthly life on May 8, 2026. Though her time here was far too short, the love and light she shared will remain in the hearts of those who loved her forever. She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Barbara Hodge, and her grandfather, Sam Lesane.

"Those we love don't go away; they walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near."
