

*"When we hear the drum,
We will think of you.
When we see the feathers dance in the wind,
We will feel your presence near.
Though your journey on earth ended too soon,
We take comfort in knowing
You are dancing freely among the clouds,
Your spirit moving to the rhythm of a heavy drum.
No longer burdened by pain,
You dance with the ancestors
Beneath the sky that never darkens
And in a circle that never ends
Surrounded by peace, love, and light.
Your footsteps may no longer touch the earth,
But the beauty of your dance
Will live on forever
In the hearts of those who loved you."*

Alzena will be remembered for her gentle heart, quiet strength, and creative spirit. She had a passion for drawing, writing, and loved expressing herself through art. She spent countless hours filling her notebooks with sketches, poems, and reflections, finding comfort in writing and allowing her imagination to flourish on every page.

identity, and created lasting memories with friends.

Outside of dancing, Alzena enjoyed skateboarding always embracing the adventure that came with it. She had a lifelong love of hockey. Whether she was on the ice playing the game or cheering on her favourite teams, hockey brought her great joy. She also enjoyed participating in the Manitoba Trappers' Festival, where she looked forward to friendly competition. She especially loved spending time with her sister, Shantel. The two were inseparable, sharing countless laughs, memories, and an unbreakable bond. Their love for one another was evident to everyone who knew them, and the memories they created together will be remembered forever.

Left to cherish her memory is her father, Mike Lajambe (Tisha); her siblings, Broady, Shantel, Michelle and Jayden; her nephews, Beau and Vinny; her paternal grandparents, Jeanne and Vernon; her aunts, Shirley, Darlene(Dave), Joyce, Patti(Jim), Kelly (Brian); her uncles, Norman, George, Eugene; along with numerous cousins, extended family members, and many dear friends.

Her gentle spirit, loving heart, and beautiful smile will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. She will be remembered in the songs of the drum, within the dance circle, through every page of a well-loved notebook, at the hockey rink, and in the countless lives she touched with her compassion and love.
