

She Was Always A Queen

She was a Queen on the dance floor; long, lean, and graceful She could really shake her thang but always doing it respectful

*She was a Queen when she walked down the street with her nice dresses, hats cocked to the side and those high heeled shoes
She had the biggest smile that you ever wanted to see; confidence, pride, self love exuded*

Those high heel shoes were forever on her feet no matter how her feet felt She just smiled, danced, and mingled until she made your heart melt

People tell me that my mother in law was mean that if you crossed her wrong she would straighten you or twist you in knots I've never saw that side of her; she was always nice and sweet to me believe it or not

She was always a Queen every time I saw her; I was her Honey Bunny who she always showed love Today in my heart beyond a doubt she's spreading her wings, putting her high heels on and giving notice that there's a Queen up above
