Kevin Brent Ternowetsky passed away on August 31, 2025. Kevin was born on March 17, 1967 to Nick and Mary Ternowetsky. He grew up in Kelvington, a place he always considered home.

In his younger years, Kevin worked in Alberta on the pipeline before returning to Kelvington later in life after his parents passed away. He liked adventure and excitement, so he didn't stay in one place very long. He often stayed with friends, moved to Wadena and he spent the last years of his life in Saskatoon.

Kevin valued friendship and connection, and those who knew him would say he had a generous heart. He loved being around people, whether that meant visiting at auction sales, enjoying a night of karaoke or simply spending time with friends. Country music was always a favorite of his, and he enjoyed the social life that came with it.

Kevin is predeceased by his parents Nick and Mary Ternowetsky and his sister Colleen O'Connor.

Left to remember Kevin are his brother-in-law Sean O'Connor, niece Siobhan O'Connor (Joe Barteski) and their children, and all those who he has met along the way.

Kevin will be fondly remembered for his good nature, his love of laughter and fun times shared with friends.
