

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Brian Rionte Turner "50", a loving son, brother, father, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend, who departed this earthly life to be with the Lord and his beloved "GG" on July 1, 2026, at the age of 36.

Brian was born on November 23, 1989, at UC Hospital to Brian and Laurene Turner. As the firstborn child, first nephew, first grandson, and first great-grandson of the family, Brian held a very special place in the hearts of those who loved him.

Brian was a loving and kind-hearted person who never met a stranger. He had a wonderful sense of humor, loved music, and was pursuing his dream of starting his own clothing line. He was incredibly talented, and despite the health challenges he faced, he always wore a smile on his face.

Brian was a devoted father whose greatest joy was his four children: Brian Jr., Aaliyah, Braylin, and Braxton. He also shared a special bond with his many nieces and nephews, who affectionately knew him as "Uncle 50." He cherished spending time with his family, especially his two brothers and his downtown family.

Brian was preceded in death by his grandmothers, Aretha Jones and Barbara Menifield; several aunts, uncles, cousins; and two dear friends whom he deeply missed.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories his loving parents, Brian and Laurene Turner; his brothers, Branden (Samantha) Turner and Braden (Angelica) Turner; his cousins, Tania, Tabresha, Jamire, and Reginette; his 13 nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends who will forever treasure the love and memories they shared with him.

Brian is now at peace. His pain and suffering have ended, but the love he gave and the memories he created will remain in our hearts forever. You are truly missed, gone but never forgotten. Until we meet again.
