

In Loving Memory

“Happy” by Pharrell Williams

Caden Taylor Dutt

November 14, 2007 ~ November 26, 2025

Caden Taylor Dutt, 18, passed away peacefully at home on November 26, 2025 after a lifelong journey with a rare genetic disease. Though nonverbal, he had a remarkable way of filling every room with joy, warmth, and an unmistakable laugh. His smile - bright, genuine, and effortless - became a source of comfort to everyone who knew him. Despite the challenges he faced, Caden embraced life with a happy spirit, finding delight in the simple moments.

To know him was to love him and to love him was to begin to love yourself. For he brought out the gentle side in all who crossed his path. The chaos of the world seemed to settle the moment he caught your attention.

Caden is preceded in death by his older brother and forever wing man Xavier Michael Arambula, and his Grandma Sally.

He leaves behind his loving mother and step father Monique (Juan) Martinez, father Shawn (Katy) Dutt, older sister Aaliyah (Alex) Arambula, older brother Jeremy (Akira) Dutt, sister Alyssa (Adrien), Grandma Debbie, Grandpa Mike (Ellen), and many aunts, uncles, cousins who will all miss him until we see him again.
