THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

Bernadette

PIERRE

Bernadette Pierre was born November 11, 1961 in La Gonave, Haiti, to Geffrard Pierre and Mary Therese Dalva. She was one of six children from her parents.

Bernadette was known for her kindness, generosity, and unwavering work ethic. She always made it a priority to leave her mark on everything that she did. Everyone has an amazing Bernadette Pierre story, though her greatest gift and accomplishment was becoming a pioneer creating a bridge for her family, paving a new path for generations to come.

On June 29, 2025, a blessed Sunday, Bernadette Pierre was called to be with the Lord in Heaven. Though we mourn her departure, we find comfort in knowing she is now in the presence of our Heavenly Father. We thank God for the blessing of her life and the precious memories we will hold dear to our hearts.

Bernadette is joining her father, Geffrard Pierre, her mother, Mary Therese Dalva, one brother and three sisters: She leaves to cherish her loving memories: Children: James Pierre, Patricia Pierre, Kathy Pierre and three grandchildren: Elijah Pierre, Ga'siah Pierre, A'dah Pierre-Hudson. She is also survived by her siblings Solange Pierre, Carmis Pierre, Onithe Pierre, Rosemonde Pierre, Eberne Pierre, Marlonde Pierre along with 5 additional brothers and 7 sisters, as well as her numerous nieces and nephews all who have brought joy and love into her life.

This is not the end, this is just the beginning, the sun has not set, it has risen. Let us not cry, let us rejoice from the life of a Mother, Grandmother, a Sister, an Aunt and a Friend.
