Remembering....

GEORGE DELANEY (JUNIOR) GORDON, JR.

George Delaney Gordon, Jr. peacefully departed this life on Saturday, July 4, 2026, at The University of Kansas Medical Center, at the age of 65. He was born on March 11, 1961, in Kansas City, Kansas, to the late George Gordon, Sr. and Viola J. Gordon.

George was welcomed into eternity by those who went before him: his beloved parents; his daughter, Jeannie Janae Davis; his son, Braxton Woods (Loretta); his grandmother, Viola Johnson Porter; and his five sisters, Georgette Gordon, Letitia U. Gordon, Josiella M. Hill, Charlene Wilson, and Nancy Goff.

Affectionately known to family and friends as "Junior" or "JR," George was a proud graduate of Westport High School. Throughout his life, he was known for his determination, resilience, and ability to overcome life's challenges. During a season of incarceration, he chose to invest in his future by earning a Master's Degree in Auto Mechanics, proving that no circumstance could diminish his desire to learn and grow. George turned his passion into his profession as a self-employed mechanic and tow-truck driver. To know Junior was to know someone who could bring almost any vehicle back to life. He loved working on cars, talking about cars, anything with an engine captured his attention. A gifted salesman and natural entrepreneur, he possessed a remarkable ability to connect with people and never met a stranger. His love for automobiles was more than a career—it was simply who he was.

Most importantly, George renewed his relationship with the Lord. He rededicated his life to Christ at Fellowship Right Baptist Church in Kansas City, Missouri, where he was baptized on June 1, 2025, by Pastor Lawrence Nevels, Sr. During his time in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, he faithfully attended The Spiritual Israel Church and Its Army under the leadership of Elder David Torrence. His renewed faith became an important part of his life's journey and brought him peace and purpose.

Though his earthly presence will be deeply missed, George leaves behind a legacy of love, perseverance, laughter, and cherished memories. He leaves to treasure his memory his three sons, Churon E. Elam, George Gordon III, and Jacobe Woods, Sr.; his two daughters, Nicole C. Davis and Tania Gordon; his grandchildren, Jacobe Woods, Jr., Jaylen Woods, Jayden Woods, Asa E. Elam, Nikia Porter, De'Arice Wright-Davis, Na'Ryiah C. Davis, and Avery Woods.

He is also lovingly survived by his eight sisters, Linda Pouncil (Bernard), Juanita Gordon, Hatty Hicks (Ernest), Melody Harris (Roy), Doreatha Rivers (Jessie), Jewell Curtis, Regina Torrence (Cecil), and Trinette Gordon; his two brothers, Alfred Gordon and Ray Gordon; his uncle, Alvin Porter (Helen); and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and dear friends whose lives were forever touched by his presence.

George's journey reminds us that a life is measured not only by the years we live, but by the love we share, the lives we touch, and the memories we leave behind. Though he has gone from our sight, his spirit will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

In Loving Memory of Uncle George

Uncle George was the kind of person who made life brighter just by being himself. He was funny, caring, and always brought joy wherever he went. He had a way of making people laugh, making them feel welcomed, and reminding everyone not to take life too seriously. He loved his family deeply and enjoyed spending time with the people he cared about most. He was unapologetically himself, and that authenticity is one of the many things we will always admire about him.

Though he will be greatly missed, the memories, laughter, and love he shared with us will remain in our hearts forever. We are grateful for the time we had with him and will always remember the happiness he brought into our lives. Forever loved. Forever missed. Forever in our hearts.

Forever in Our Hearts

You walked this life with steady hands, A love that asked for no applause—Just quiet strength, and gentle plans, And time enough to give because. You taught us more than words could hold: To laugh, to work, to stand up tall. Your kindness, patient, never told, Simply lived it, gave your all. Though now the road ahead is still, Your voice remains in every room, Your laughter echoes, always will, Like sunlight breaking through the gloom. We will not say that you are gone— You've only stepped beyond our sight. Your love goes with us, carries on, A steady hand, a guiding light. Your voice grows quiet, but not your name, Your love still burns a steady flame. Though you have gone where we can't see, You'll live in us, eternally Kathy And Trey & family
