After Glow

Author Unknown

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When life is done.

I'd like the memory of me,
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles, when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
& bright and sunny days

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When life is done.

Thank You

There are not enough words to fully express our heartfelt appreciation for the Sympathy, Love, and Support you have extended to our Family during the Loss of our Loved one.
May God Bless and Keep You.

Life Reflections

Pastor Nina Faye Davis, affectionately known to many as simply Pastor Nina, was born July 20, 1967 in Washington, D.C. She was the daughter of Bishop Thomas Davis and the late Linda Faye Davis. As the daughter of a pastor, she lived in many cities throughout her childhood. Pastor Nina graduated from Smithfield-Selma High School in 1985. Thereafter, she attended Tomlinson College, in Cleveland, Tennessee where she matriculated in 1987.

Pastor Nina accepted Christ as her Savior at the tender age of 8. She accepted her call to preach while still a first-year student at Tomlinson College, preaching her initial sermon that same year. After college, Pastor Nina worked for many years with the N.C. Department of Corrections. Despite the demands of her job, she was a very active member of The Church of God of Prophecy. She worked at the summer youth camp for years, went on numerous mission trips and faithfully participated in Women in Ministry.

Pastor Nina was committed to her call to preach accepting invitations wherever God opened a door for her to share the gospel, including, conferences all over the United States, mission trips to Jamaica, the U.S. Virgin Islands and Africa.

She became the pastor at Victory Life Christian Center, Church of God of Prophecy located in Elizabeth City, NC in 1997 serving diligently for 27 years. Her impact there is part of her lasting legacy of love for God, love for people and love for service.

While God was Pastor Nina's first commitment her second commitment was to family and friends. It was her nature to expend all her energy in serving God, taking care of those she loved and staying connected to friends. If you ask Pastor Nina about her family, she would say without hesitation that she had a big family with three brothers and four sisters. She was a consistent source of love and support for her father, her beloved Mama E, her siblings, her nieces, her nephews and every friend she made all along the way.

Preceded in death by her brother, Derek Johnson of Pittsburgh, PA, Pastor Nina leaves to cherish the memories of her preaching, acts of love, acts of service and love of laughter:

Her father and mother: Bishop Thomas Davis and Eloyce Davis of Selma, NC; four sisters, Rosie Taft (Swindell) of Greenville, NC, Sara Nixon (Rucker) of Ahoskie, NC, Shakita Sneed of Washington, DC, Tarsha McNeill (Theora) of Pine Level, NC; two brothers, Derone McNeill (Stephanie) of Statesville, NC, Maurice McNeill (Jazmine) of Godwin, NC; special sister-in-law, Neila D. Johnson of Pittsburgh, PA; her aunts Faye Williams of Richmond, VA, Cynthia McNeil of Pine Level, NC and her special aunt Ruby Mickens of Selma, NC; one uncle, Dennis McNeill (Anita) of Erwin, NC; her special parents Jim and Cecelia Wilson of Wendell, NC, seven nieces, nine nephews, three great nieces, two great nephews, numerous cousins, and truly a host of friends from all over the country, including her closest friend, Jennifer Edwards; the Victory Life Christian Center church family and the Cathedral of Love Ministries church family.

Precious Flower

Lord take my tiny precious flower
 Who had no time to bloom
 Lift her gently in your arms
 And find a little room
 In the Heavenly garden
 That you planted high above
 Then care for her and keep her safe
 Within your perfect love
 Find a little corner
 In a quiet sheltered place
 Where she can feel the healing sun
 Caress her lovely face
 Give her the tender caring
 That I can no longer give Hold her with your gentle hands
 And let her fragrance live
 The dearest and the loveliest
 Of flowers that ever grew
 My precious gift from Heaven I return, dear Lord, to you
