My Son, My Angel

My son, there are no words that could ever truly express the pain in my heart now that you are gone. I still find myself wishing this was all just a bad dream and that somehow I could hear your voice, see your smile, and hold you in my arms one more time.

You were more than my son—you were a piece of my heart, a part of my soul, and one of the greatest blessings God ever gave me. I will forever cherish every memory, every laugh, every conversation, and every moment we shared.

Losing you has left a space in my heart that no one could ever fill. I wish I had more time with you. I wish I could have one more hug, one more conversation, and one more chance to tell you just how much I love you.

Although I cannot see you anymore, I will carry you with me every single day. Your memory will live on through me, through our family, and through everyone whose life you touched.

I hope you are resting peacefully, free from all pain and surrounded by love. Until the day we meet again, please know that your mother will never stop loving you, missing you, or speaking your name.

Rest peacefully, my beautiful son.
You will forever be my baby, my heart,
and my angel.

I love you beyond this life and into eternity.

My Brother,

You will always hold a special place in my heart. I will forever cherish the memories, laughter, and moments we shared. All of the prank wars, the fights, and the jokes I will forever miss a house full of laughter. Your life touched so many people, and your love will continue to live on through all of us. You may be gone from our sight, but you will never be forgotten. I love you always, and I will miss you more than words can say. Rest peacefully, Dariss.

Shyah

To most people, he was known as KJ, but to me, he was Dariss. And that name will always hold a special place in my heart. One of the memories I will always cherish is when Dariss asked my mom to be his godmother. That moment meant so much because it brought our families even closer and created a bond that I will forever be grateful for. Dariss had a love and mellowness about him that made him special, His presence, his heart, and the love he gave to the people around him are things that will never be forgotten. Losing you hurts more than words can explain, Dariss. I wish we had more time, more memories, and more moments together. But I find comfort knowing that God has you now, and I pray that He continues to watch over you and give you eternal peace. You may have left this world, but you will never leave our hearts. Your name, your love, and the memories you gave us will live on forever. Rest peacefully, big brother. Until we meet again.

I love you always my boy,
God Sister.

Dear Dariss,

Cuzzo I can't believe I'm writing this right now. I feel like the whole universe is against me. I miss you big cuzin this don't even feel real to me it's hard to even picture. I still remember when we was little play fighting in front of our mommas it feels like yesterday and we grew up so fast. I always thought you would be here. I had a dream about you and the last conversation we had. You told me to stay out the way and don't fall victim to the system and I told you I wasn't and I was gone do something with my life and do it the right way. I feel like I failed you in some type of way and that will forever be on my mind knowing I didn't do what you told me. I'm sorry cuzzo FLY HIGH!!

Always & Forever,
Love Zaire

Forever in our hearts, Dariss.

I still can't believe you're gone. THIS IS CRAZY. 20 years was wayy too young, and it hurts knowing you're not here with us anymore. I'm grateful for every memory, every laugh, and every moment we got to share.

You'll always be my cousin, and you'll always have a place in my heart. I wish we had more time, but I'll carry the memories of you with me forever.

Rest peacefully, Dariss.
Gone too soon, but never forgotten.

Dariss T

There are no words that can truly express how deeply my heart hurts knowing that you are no longer here with us. You were not only my godson, but someone who held a very special place in my heart and in my life.

You were a good person with a beautiful spirit. I will always remember your smile, your personality, the moments we shared, and the memories you left behind. Your life may have been cut short, but the love you gave and the impact you made will never be forgotten.

I will miss you more than words can say. I will miss seeing you, hearing your voice, and simply knowing that you were here. There will always be a place in my heart that belongs to you, and nothing can ever take that away.

Although saying goodbye hurts so deeply, I find comfort in knowing that your memory will live on through everyone who loved you. I promise to remember the good person you were and to carry your memory with me for the rest of my life.

Rest peacefully, my dear Darius. You were loved, you are missed, and you will never be forgotten. Until we meet again, my godson.
