OBITUARY

BETTY ANN BROADNAX
January 1, 1947 – June 8, 2025

It is with great sadness that the family of Betty Ann Broadnax announce her passing. Betty Ann was born on January 1, 1947, in Leesburg, Florida, and lived there until relocating to Orlando at age 18. In Orlando, she raised her sons Dwayne, Joey, and Derrick. She later met and married Larry D. Broadnax, and together they welcomed their youngest son, Darnell.

After marriage, the family made their home in Charleston, South Carolina, where Betty Ann dedicated her career to the U.S. Border Patrol, eventually becoming the manager of facilities maintenance before retiring in 2009. Following retirement, she devoted herself to caring for her beloved husband during his health challenges.

A devoted mother and wife, Betty Ann, always prioritized her family’s well-being and happiness. She was known for her deep faith and was a faithful member of First Missionary Baptist Church of Summerville, where she worshipped regularly.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Larry D. Broadnax, Sr.; her son, Dwayne T. Adams; her parents, Jennie Mae and Jake Nettles; and her sister, Julia Mae Nettles.

She is survived by her sons: Lawrence “Joey” Adams, Derrick Adams, and Larry “Darnell” Broadnax Jr. (and his wife, Charmaine). She also leaves behind grandchildren, Dwanna, Kayla, Buster, Destiny, Ahmad, Xavier, Savannah, Landon, Haven, Hayden, Avery, and Zion; her siblings, Jennie V. Dupree

(and her husband James), Shirley, Jake, John, Wanda, and Virginia; a beloved childhood friend, Mercedes E. Ford; and a host of great grandchildren, relatives, and friends.

When My Savior Brings Me Home

As my days on earth have ended and my time has finally come Don't think I've left you, just rejoice that my battle's finally won.

It was in those quiet hours
when I seemed so far away
That my Savior sat beside me to prepare me for this day.

He settled all my doubts and fears and took away the pain.
Please know there was no suffering
when at last my Savior came.

To you it may have seemed too hard
and lasted much too long,
But for me it was a peaceful wait
for God to bring me home.

I know that you did all you could and yes, He heard your cries,
For God Himself reached out His hand and gently closed my eyes.
