In Loving Memory Of
Dennis Chris Constant

August 2, 1976 – September 19, 2026

Dennis Chris Constant was born Monday, August 2, 1976, in The Pas, MB to Bert Constant Sr and the late Gloria Budd.

Dennis grew up on Riverside and was found often running around the mill with his cousins or entering air bands when he was a teenager. Dennis often spent his time playing soccer with the OCN Snipers, hanging out with friends and family, and listening music. He often played his favourite song; Tennessee Whiskey. He also loved to go camping and hunting down at our families Camp in Mameek with his dad, brothers and cousins. He also loved to fish whether it was on the boat or the shoreline on Riverside. Dennis was also a protector of his brothers and cousins growing up. He always made sure no one would “mess around” with any of his family members, he truly loved them all.

Dennis was a beloved son, dad, brother, uncle, grandpa and friend. He lived most of his life here in Opaskwayak Cree Nation and also lived with his mom in Cumberland for some time he then moved back to Opaskwayak. He later met his late wife, Chantel Constant and moved to Sapatowayak for some time but he always came back home to OCN. He has two sons Draven Michel and Keshawn Cook along with seven grandchildren

Dennis survived by his father, Bert Constant Sr.; siblings: Adrian Sinclair (Cheyenne Tacan), Bert Constant Jr. (Jennifer Constant), Earl Constant (Cassandra Moore), Destiny Sinclair; nieces/nephews: Lakesha, Maekayla, Jeneka, Jaylynn, Brandi, Torrie, Neeka, Diaz, Valen, Alyssa, Daniel, Hunter, Pavel, Kingsley and Maisley
