

CIRCLE OF LOVE

It seems I've known you all my life,
And loved you even longer
And now I have become your wife
The bond is so much stronger.

"Some marriages are made in Heaven"
I heard the preacher say
That ours is one of those so blessed
I knew for sure that day.

And on and on . . . "til death you part"
But the voice within me said
"It goes beyond the grave, sweetheart,
I'll love you when I'm dead."

And now I know that death is life
And birth's just a forgetting
And then, and now, and what will be
In one whole circle's fitting.
