

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me,
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me.
God wanted me now. He set me free.*

Shirley A. Webber, 88, town of Wheaton, died peacefully at home under the care of St. Croix Hospice on Tuesday, September 15, 2026.

On May 12, 1938, Shirley was born to Walter & Elenore (Johnson) Williamson in Eau Claire, WI. She graduated from Memorial High School with the class of 1956. Shirley was united in marriage to Donald Webber on June 30, 1956, in Stillwater, MN.

For many years Shirley worked at Amoco Foam later known as Pactiv, retiring at age 65. Shirley was a life-long member of Our Saviour's Lutheran church where she was involved with many activities. She served for Agnes Table for many years. Shirley enjoyed gardening, canning, going to the gym, but most of all, Shirley was a dedicated wife, mother and grandmother that never missed a birthday, wedding or any family event. She truly loved to give and help others.

Shirley is survived by her husband of 70 years, Donald; children, Michael Webber, Janet (Michael) Davis, Janice Webber, Tamara (Dave) Zwiefelhofer, and Daniel Webber; grandchildren, David (Julie) Bohl, Jeffery (Angela) Bohl, Haley Davis, Elizabeth (Michael) Fuerst, Jami (Al) Myher, Jacki Vierstraete, and Casandra (Eric) Steffen; ten great-grandchildren; brothers, Joseph (Carolyn) Williamson, Gerald (Shelly) Williamson; along with many nieces, nephews and other loving relatives.

She was preceded in death by her parents; siblings, Rose Glanville, Karen Kappus, Mary Ann Potts, and Charles Williamson; and grandson, John Bohl.

The family would like to thank St. Croix Hospice for their exceptional care given to Shirley during their time with her.
