

James Dean Calhoun

August 19, 1942 ~ March 26, 2025

In loving memory of James Dean Calhoun

James Dean Calhoun, aka Jimmy, was born on August 19, 1942, in Fort Stockton, Texas, to Roy Dean and Jesse Zelma Calhoun.

As a child, he enjoyed playing baseball with his cousins and friends. It was not uncommon for him to hit home runs. He could hit the ball over the railroad tracks to the dismay of the other team. Some say that when Jimmy came to play ball, the opposing team quit.

At the age of 15, he started working with his dad as a roofer. He continued in the roofing trade, serving both residential and commercial properties for 60 years.

James was united in Holy Matrimony to Linda Johnson on June 15, 1962. They raised a family of seven children together and celebrated sixty-two years of marriage at the time of his death.

On Wednesday, March 26, 2025, at the age of 82, he passed away at home with his family and friends at his bedside in Elgin, Texas.

James is preceded in death by his parents, Roy Dean and Jesse Zelma Calhoun; siblings, Ruth McDonald, Irene Coppola, Ruby Meredith, Floyd McDonald, Bertha Mae Gladieux, and Albert Roy Calhoun; grandchildren, Daniel Ryan Dover and Sherri Marie Calhoun; and great-grandchildren, Kaiya Sky Calhoun and Logan Marie Luper.

James is survived by his wife, Linda Calhoun; his daughter, Christina (Tina) Dover; his sons, James Matthew, Michael Roy, Jimmy Darren, Jason Wayne, Robert Clint, Albert Trent Calhoun, and Danny Walsh; thirty-three grandchildren; and thirty-five great-grandchildren.

Closing Prayer

A legacy of love and grace,
A smile that brightened every place.
My grandpa's gone, to heaven's call,
But his spirit lives within us all.
The lessons learned, the stories told,
A treasure trove, more precious than gold.
Though we may grieve, and feel the pain,
His love will rise, again and again.
In every sunset, every star,
We'll see his love, near and far.

Forever in my heart
Love you pawpaw

In times like these, friendship and love are gifts from God. It is because of your thoughtfulness that we can celebrate and honor James' life with a sense of peace. Our hearts are bowed in sorrow over his passing, yet during these times, you have lifted us in prayer, for which we are eternally grateful. Your many kind expressions of sympathy and all other acts of kindness shown shall never be forgotten. May God Bless!!!
