Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a flower piece, if so we saw it there. Perhaps you said the kindest words, that any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much - Whatever the part.

RECESSIONAL

Deacon Darphus Sims

was born July 15, 1931 to the late Molly Garner and late Arthur Sims. Mr. Sims was a faithful member of At His Feet Ministries. He was a lover of baseball and car racing. His favorite race car driver was Dale Earnhardt, Sr. who drove car number 3, in the NASCAR circuit.

He leaves to cherish fond and loving memories to his wonderful and devoted wife of 58 years, Betty J. Sims; four daughters, Mary Ann (Odell) Sloan, Pastor Dorothy Lee Younge, Jean Pilgrim and Barbara Sims all of Spartanburg, SC; two sons, Carl Smith of Pauline, SC and Michael (Nancy) Sims of Spartanburg, SC; three brothers, Pastor James (Odessa) Henderson of Simpsonville, SC, David Henderson and Henry Sims both of Spartanburg, SC; ten grandchildren; a host of great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Elwillie Gambrell and Mittie Lee Dogan; three brothers, Roosevelt Sims, Tom Henderson and Jackie Henderson.

On Monday, May 24, 2021, Deacon Sims died to the care and keeping of a merciful God. He is now resting from his labor and leaves a legacy that will forever be treasured in the earth.
