LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

*"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.
I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I kept the faith."*

Willie Burnett ("T-Man") Haymer born on March 12, 1961, in Benton, Mississippi. His mother, Cora Lee Haymer, and father, Odell Alexander, both preceded him in death. He was the third of ten children. His life was heavily influenced by the values instilled in him by his great-grandmother, Rosie Haymer, who preceded him in death.

Willie attended King Elementary School and Middle School at Linwood Elementary School. He furthered his education at Benton High School.

Willie accepted Christ at an early age and joined Water's Grove African Methodist Church.

He was an avid sports fan and developed a long-standing love for the game of basketball. His hobbies included playing pool, and he won many games with his behind-the-back trick shot. T-man was a fun-loving person and loved by those who knew him.

Willie's grandparents, Louise Young and L.C. Haymer and Lillie Sailer preceded him in death, as did two of his siblings, Benjamin Anderson (brother) and Clinton Anderson (brother).

He leaves to cherish his memories nine siblings: Vergie Haymer, Flora (Robert) Shaffer, Carolyn (James) Meeks, Pamela (Calvin) Williams, Carolyn Jones, Diane Wright, Tasha Anderson, John L. Anderson and George Anderson. He also leaves a special cousin, Cleotha Sanders, who has been a rock and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

You Are Not Forgotten

*You are not forgotten, Willie
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee and
The hard part wasn't losing you.
It is learning to live without you.
We will always love you, bro.*

Love,
Your Brothers and Sisters

GOD will wipe every tear away.
Rest my brother!
Love Your Sister Vergie

*Willie you are gone, but you will never be forgotten.
We may be apart, but your memory will live within us forever. We are only left with your memories to live with now.
No words can express our grief.*

Love
Your Nieces and Nephews
