Remembering Emmanuel

Emmanuel Larrieux was born on January 25, 2001, in Haiti to Raymond and Therese Saint-Gilles, who gave him a great education, principles and lots of love.

In 2015, Emmanuel Larrieux moved to the U.S. with hope to build a better life for himself and for his family.

He started his high school journey here in Kansas City, Missouri, and graduated. And it was something that his family was very proud of. Emmanuel was a devoted father to all five of his children (three by Fredyline Calixte); Avery, Isaac, Joshua, Cienna, and Emrielle. He was a loving partner to Jasmine. An extremely caring and dependable son, brother and friend. He was loved by everyone, and his energy was like no other; Goofy, strong, passionate, confident, loud... every single characteristic was special.

Acts of service was his love language, as he just wanted to show his love by making sure everyone he cared about was taken care of. He was amazing at everything. So much that he had plans to become a barber, open a restaurant, and a trucking business. One of the phrases that Emmanuel uses a lot was that one day he was going to have a million dollars, because he dreamed of taking care of his family, especially his children so that they can have a better life. Emmanuel has three brothers; Carlhenry Jean Philippe, Walter Astrel, and Darlin Larrieux. And two sisters; Betty and Johanne. And he is joined in heaven with his third sister, Louna.

Emmanuel leaves to cherish his memories of his children, his girlfriend, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. And they will always remember the love that he has for them.
