

*I've Earned My Wings
don't ask me why I left today, instead remember what a glorious life I lead the beautiful times we shared together* all these tears being shed remind me I am loved that we are human, we grieve a better question is where am I going now look around at these beautiful children and know without doubt I am a part of them an essence that guides them on their journey

don't ask me why I left today, instead wish me safe passage on my new venture be strong for me, remember all I was:

a devoted man that needs you to carry on a loving brother that alone knew our struggles a caring father, grandfather, friend it was my time to go, of that I am certain know that I am at peace and didn't suffer know that you all meant the world to me

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF APPRECIATION

Thank you to all who attended and shared with us During this time of grief. May God continue to bless and keep you. Special thanks to Kenitra, Mohammed, Grace, Ahmir, & Darren.

Obituary "1953-2021"

"Jimmy" as he was called by those who knew him. Was the third son born to Eugene Harry Jr. and Elsie Louise Harry, both deceased. The couple raised their family at 135 South Lexington Avenue in the Winbrook Apartment Houses. Jimmy was the third son. He had five siblings; Frazier Lee Harry, Eugene Harry III, and Anthony Craig Harry, also deceased and is survived by Warren Bruce Harry and Rosa Lynn Harry. Jimmy is remembered as a man who loved his family and friends and brought a smile to everyone's face.

Jimmy graduated from White Plains High School in 1971. He was a gifted athlete who excelled at basketball and received a basketball scholarship to attend Cortez Peters Jr. College where he was a star power forward. In his later years he chose to be called James and worked as a telemarketer and community field worker for political campaigns in New York City, and Westchester County. James' favorite campaign to work on, was his eldest daughter, Tasha's campaign. James was a featured Speaker at Narcotics Anonymous groups throughout the region and he sponsored many other recovering addicts toward finding and maintaining their own sobriety.

James is survived by his loving family. His brother, Warren Harry, living in Harlem, N.Y., and Sister, Rosa Lynn Harry, living in White Plains N.Y. James is also survived by three daughters and their families. A daughter, Natasha Young living in Tarrytown, N.Y., a granddaughter Yakira Young and great granddaughter Monroe; daughter, Kenitra Hidayah Ahmed, and his son-in-law, Muhummad Ahmed, their five children; Kyuande, Aquande and Ahmir Johnson and Azan and Dua'a Ahmed living in Bluebell, Pennsylvania and daughter Jasmine Ward and her children. Nasalia Headlam and Ryan Todd in Yonkers, N.Y. He is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many many friends and acquaintances.
