Obituary

Jonae Mikiah Sabree Collins, 21 of Concord, North Carolina, was born on May 1, 2003, at Peninsula Regional Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland, to Liantwanette Lumpkin and Jonathan Collins (Descell). She was called to her heavenly rest on December 31, 2024, at her residence.

Jonae was educated in Somerset County and Wicomico County Public Schools where she participated in track and field. She was known by many nicknames including "Precious" "Boop" and "Nae." Jonae had a very bubbly and sweet personality and an aura that could brighten any room she stepped into. She spent most of her time making herself and others feel beautiful by doing their hair and makeup.

Jonae was last employed by Dave & Busters, where she worked as a waitress. She had started her own business two years ago called "Therapeutic Beats by Nae."

Jonae was preceded in death by her maternal grandfather, Charles Coulbourne, Sr., and her paternal grandfather, Bruce Stewart.

In addition to her parents, Jonae leaves to cherish fond memories with her 10-month-old son who she loved dearly; her brother, Da'Quantae White; four sisters, Briaja Collins, Shadimon Collins, Tiara Collins, and Ashira Collins; grandparents, Laverne Stewart, Lila Lumpkin and George Collins; aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, and friends

I'm There Inside Your Heart

Right now I'm in a different place

And though we seem apart

I'm closer than I ever was,

I'm there inside your heart.

I'm with you when you greet each day

And while the sun shines bright

I'm there to share the sunsets, too

I'm with you every night.

I'm with you when the times are good

To share a laugh or two,

And if a tear should start to fall

I'll still be there for you.

And when that day arrives

That we no longer are apart,

I'll smile and hold you close to me,
