

Poem

Don't grieve for me, I am free
 I'm following the path God has laid, you see.
 I took his hand when I heard his call
 I turned around and I left it all.
 I could not stay another day
 To laugh, to love to work or play.
 Task left undone must stay that way
 I found the peace on 1-3-26 on a Saturday.
 If my parting has left a void
 Then fill it with remembered joys.
 A family shared, a laugh, a kiss
 Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I've savored much,
 Good family, good times a loved ones touch.
 Perhaps my time seem all too brief
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee.
 God wanted me now, from pain I'm free.

Obituary

Jamil Ramon Carter 35 of Harrisburg, affectionately known as “Drip”, was born on September 3, 1990, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, to Patricia Smith and the late Zubber Carter Jr. He was the youngest of three children.

Jamil completed his education in the Harrisburg Public School System and graduated from William Penn High School in 2008. In his youth He served on the Jr Usher Board at Mount Calvary Church of God in Christ.

He was employed in the retail sector at Macy's and Bon Ton until their closures. Additionally, he operated an online business in which he marketed oils, incense, laundry detergent, jewelry etc.

Jamil enjoyed visiting Dave & Buster's, participating in bowling activities, dining out, and taking photographs. He took pride in his appearance, maintained a charismatic personality, and appreciated social interactions. Additionally, he actively engaged with social media platforms, particularly Facebook.

Jamil was very close to his grandmother, who taught him a lot and was very important in his life. Her death changed his life significantly.

Jamil Carter transitioned into eternal life on January 3, 2026, at 6:23 a.m. at UPMC Harrisburg Hospital Harrisburg, PA.

Along with his father he is preceded by his paternal grandparents Geneva Proctor and Joseph Proctor.

He leaves to honor and cherish his memory his devoted mother, Patricia Smith of Harrisburg, PA, his siblings Nicole Carter of Marietta, GA, Raasheed Carter, his stepmother Irene Thompson, uncle Dean Carter, aunts Ida Mae Hatcher, Dada G. Richardson, special cousins Jessie Johnson, Lulu Hicks, Jackie Hatcher, Devon Carter, all of Harrisburg, PA, Kesi Carter, nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.
