

I refuse to be discouraged

I refuse to be discouraged. To be sad, or to cry, I refuse to be downhearted, and here is the reason why.

I have a God who is mighty. Who is sovereign and supreme, I have a God who loved me, and strengthen me when I am weak.

He meets all my needs. Though everything is changeable. My God remains the same.

He knows all that is happening, from beginning to the end. His presence is my comfort, He is my dearest Friend.

When circumstances threaten to rob me of my peace, He draws me close into His breast. Where all my fears cease.

And when my heart melts within me, and my problems try to take control, He gathers me in His arms, He soothes my heart and soul.

The great I am is with me. My life is always in His hand. The Lord is my everything, it is in His strength I stand.

I refuse to be defeated my eyes are on my God. He promised me He would keep me. Through this life I trod.

He helps me look past all of my circumstances. To Heaven's throne above. I have reached the throne of God. I am resting in His love.

I thank God for everything. My eyes are on His face. The battles was His, the victory is mine. He helped me from day to day.

I have run my course. I have finished my race. And now all I have left to say is, not good bye, but, don't be discouraged, for I will see you on the other side.

Life Profile

Harry Isiah Major, Jr., was born September 2, 1979, in Charleston, South Carolina. He was the son of Mr. Harry Major, Sr. and Mrs. Annette Handy and bonus father Ira Handy, Sr. Harry was affectionately called "Reeboo" by his mother and "Porkchop" by his siblings.

Harry attended elementary school in Charleston before moving to Joliet, IL where he completed high school and attended Joliet Jr. College.

From a young age, Harry had an Entrepreneurial spirit, always thinking of a way to make a way. Harry loved collecting old coins, cutting grass, fishing and being with his family.

As a child, Harry was introduced to God and developed his own personal relationship with Him. It was this relationship that kept Harry. Even though he had some health issues, he never complained and almost always flashed that "million-dollar smile" that he was known to have. To know Harry was to love Harry!

On Saturday, December 10th, 2022, God gave Harry rest, no more suffering, no more pain.

To cherish his memories are his father Mr. Harry I. Major, Sr. of Joliet, IL, mother and bonus father, Annette and Ira Handy, Sr. of Taylors, SC; siblings, Frank (Avaney) Scott of N.
