

LOOK FOR ME IN RAINBOWS

Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.

Time for me to leave you, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.
In the evening sunset, when all the world is through,
Just look for me and love me, and I'll be close to you.

It won't be forever, the day will come and then
My loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.
Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.

Every waking moment, and all your whole life through
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.

Just wish me to be near you,
And I'll be there with you.

His Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

Joshua James Millage, 42, loving son, brother, and uncle passed away at home on January 31, 2026. He was born in Rapid City, South Dakota on September 4, 1983 to parents Mary Robin and Jim Millage. He attended Rapid City Central High School, where he graduated with honors in 2002. He had a gentle soul with the kindest heart. He had a deep love for music, and loved playing guitar. He loved playing basketball, and was an avid fan of the Lakers. He will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

He is survived by his parents, Mary Robin Millage and Jim (Lacey) Millage, sister Amber Millage, brother Mat (Jasmine) Millage, nieces Madison, Maci, Maebyn, and Miley, and nephew Jackson, Grandma Joyce Millage and several aunts, uncles, and cousins.
