OBITUARY

Ye shall walk in all the ways which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess." (Deuteronomy 5:33)

Mother Queen Elizabeth Dingle was called home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on July 11, 2026, at the Lake Moultrie Nursing Home in St. Stephen, South Carolina.

She entered the world on August 30, 2028, in Pineville, South Carolina, born to Eugenia Dingle Gaillard and John Dingle, both now departed. She was educated in the public schools of Berkeley County and later continued her studies at Morris College in Sumter, South Carolina.

In time, she made her way to Jersey City, New Jersey, where she worked for the Tootsie Roll Candy Company—a role she cherished deeply. She took great pride in recounting stories from her years at Tootsie Roll, sharing them with warmth and enthusiasm.

She often celebrated her long life with a playful confidence, proudly declaring that as the youngest of fifteen siblings, she was surely destined to outlive them all. Her joys were abundant: singing, reading the Word of God, cooking, sharing stories from her years at the Tootsie Roll Factory, and reflecting on her time at Day Dawn Baptist Church. She loved her family deeply, and she was famously inseparable from her cell phone.

Among all her memories, one remained closest to her heart. She often recounted how, at just three years old, she offered her father a glass of water—an act of pure innocence and love that became her final moment with him before his passing. She carried that memory throughout her life, sharing it whenever the opportunity arose. And woven into her vibrant personality was her signature expression, delivered with unmistakable flair: "Bam-Bamiti!" "Anna Bertha" as she is known to her family leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and unwavering devotion to all her family.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: Her beloved son, Larry (Sharon) Dingle; her cherished grandchildren, Kelly Cauldwell, Kevin, Laronda, and Tamika Dingle, Lavern Jr. and Shannon Keitt, and Latoya Salters; eight great-grandchildren; her son-in-law, Lavern Keitt Sr.; two special nieces, Joyce Dixon and Essie Mae Addison and a host of nieces, nephews extended family members, and dear friends.

She was preceded in death by her daughter Elaine Dingle Keitt; her parents, John and Eugenia Dingle; and fifteen siblings.
