

OBITUARY

Larry McClure, Jr., born on June 4, 1971, in Cleburne, Texas, passed away on June 14, 2026, in Corpus Christi, Texas. He was a cherished member of his community and a man whose presence could brighten any room.

Known for his easygoing nature and friendly demeanor, Larry never met a stranger. His love of life was evident in his many passions, including watching sports-especially rooting for the Dallas Cowboys and Texas Rangers-hunting, fishing, and spending time by the beach. Larry had a unique charm and was affectionately known as "The Life of the Party." He often reminded those around him with his trademark saying: "You get what you get and you don't throw a fit," reflecting his straightforward and joyful approach to life.

Larry was preceded in death by his beloved son, Garrett McClure.

He is survived by his father and mother, Larry Randall, Sr. and Patsy McClure; brother, Chad McClure; sister, Michelle Smith; nieces, Dana McClure and Morgan Smith; nephew, Austin Smith, many aunts, uncles, other relatives, and friends. Larry McClure, Jr.'s life was a testament to joy, kindness, and an unending zest for living. His memory will remain a blessing to all who knew him, and his spirit will continue to inspire those fortunate enough to have called him family and friend.

Celebrating the Life of Larry McClure, Jr.

Come And Rest

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes.
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine."
The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are past.
The ever patient, the worn out frame.
Has found sweet peace at last.
God saw that I was getting weary.
So he did what he knew best.
He came and stood beside me.
And whispered, "Come and Rest."
I bade no one a last farewell,
Not even a goodbye.
I was gone before you knew it,
And only God knows why.
I'll sleep on, too, Dear Family I Love.
For I have gone to take my rest,
I know you loved me,
but God loved me best.
