LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.*

For this is a journey we all must take

*And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.*

Obituary

On the morning of July 30, 2025, Stratton Clark Medley Sr. peacefully transitioned into eternal rest, surrounded by his loving family. Stratton was born on January 13, 1949, in Whittaker, West Virginia, to the late Howard Lee Medley Sr. and Hattie Bell Medley. He was raised in Delaware, Ohio, where he attended public schools and began shaping the strong foundation that would guide his life.

In 1967, Stratton proudly served in the United States Marines. During his service, he was called home on emergency leave. Following his time in the military, Stratton pursued a career as a professional truck driver, working for various companies over the years. He also earned the distinguished rank of black belt in martial arts, a testament to his discipline and dedication. In addition to maintaining his physical fitness, Stratton held several of security guard positions, where his presence and vigilance were valued and respected.

Stratton was a protector and mentored to his family, firm in his values, devoted to structure, and full of love. He took great pride in being a father and grandfather, always striving to lead by example.

Stratton is preceded in death by his parents Howard Lee Medley Sr. and Hattie Bell Medley. siblings Ida Bell Medley-Smith, Viola Inez Medley-Bradley, Howard Lee Medley jr., Charles Housler Medley and David Cameron Medley.

Stratton leaves behind to cherish his memory: His children Sons: Stratton Medley jr., Nashee Medley; daughters; Tracey Chelle Medley, Thiara Medley, (his devoted caregiver) and Ashley Medley; His brother Robert C. Medley; 17 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren who brought joy to his life; As well as a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends. Stratton's legacy of strength, love and discipline lives on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.
