

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing" - 2 Timothy 4:7-8

Obituary

hush, hush, Somebody's calling my name

"Watch therefore for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come." - Matt: 24:42

DOROTHY JOHNSON WEAVER, affectionately known as "Dot" and "Mother Dear", was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina on June 30, 1930 to her loving deceased parents, Luberta and Darius Johnson, Sr.

Dorothy grew up in Fayetteville, NC, and at an early age became a member of Second Baptist Church, where she was an active member. Dorothy attended Fayetteville City Schools and was a 1948 graduate of E. E. Smith Sr. High School.

"Dot" always had a desire to help others, so she decided to attend and graduate from Watts School of Nursing in Durham, North Carolina. After graduating from Watts Nursing School, "Dot" moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where she was gainfully employed at Francis Scott Key Medical Center & Johns Hopkins Bayview, previously named City Hospital. She retired from Francis Scott Key Medical Center after serving over forty (40) years.

While living and working in Baltimore, "Dot" met the love of her life, Richard Weaver. They were married on November 9, 1965. Now a blended family, the two of them together had seven children. Richard preceded "Dot" in death in 1997 and "Dot's" only daughter, Earlyn LaGretta Johnson, preceded her mother in death in 2013.

Dorothy became a member of Shiloh Christian Community Church, Baltimore, Maryland, where she sang in the choir until her health declined. She was an active member of the "Tuesday Seniors" group and she often transported her friends to church on Sunday mornings, as well as to various church meetings throughout the week. Dorothy was always willing to lend a helping hand to others and she often did this through various donations to charities and organizations which supported the underprivileged.

Those who are left to cherish fond memories are: her nieces, Dr. Jan D. Johnson-Johnson (Robert) of Fayetteville, NC and Berta Ann Downing of Fayetteville, NC; the children, Richard Weaver, (Arnetta) of Spring Lake, NC, Preston Weaver of Atlanta, GA, Bobby Weaver (Paulette) of Fayetteville, NC, Bruce Weaver (Beverly) of Richardson, TX, Alton Weaver of Houston, TX and Richard 'Pete' Herbert of Baltimore, MD; special family friends, Veronica Wright of Columbia, MD and Beverly Bromley of Baltimore, MD; a host of great-nieces and -nephews, great-great-nieces and -nephews, and numerous dear friends who will miss 'Dot', 'Mother Dear' sincerely.
