Cocomelon Sky

Up in the sky where rainbows play,
Little stars sing through night and day.
With giggles bright and eyes that shine,
Heaven gained a love so fine.
Clap your hands, stomp your feet,
Hear the angels' music sweet.
Dancing clouds and skies so blue,
A joyful place just made for you.
Though we miss your smile down here,
We hold you close, we feel you near.
In every song and sunny day,
Your happy light will always stay.

A Funfilled Life of Color

Da'Quan Lakeith Cummings, Jr., affectionately known as "DJ," was born on November 4, 2018, in Fort Walton Beach, Florida, to Ziya Daniels and Da'Quan Cummings, Sr. From the very beginning, DJ brought joy everywhere he went. His bright smile, playful spirit, and loving heart made each day sweeter for those around him. He loved spending time with his family and found happiness in the simple things — especially watching Cocomelon, enjoying Mickey Mouse, and singing along to his favorite cartoons. His laughter and innocence were gifts that warmed every room he entered.

DJ attended Wewahitchka Elementary School, where his gentle and cheerful nature touched the hearts of classmates and teachers alike. Though his time with us was brief, the love he shared will last forever. On January 19, 2026, in Pensacola, Florida, DJ peacefully transitioned, leaving behind cherished memories that will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

DJ leaves to cherish his precious memory his loving parents, Ziya Daniels and Da'Quan Cummings, Sr.; his beloved brother, Kaiden Cummings; his maternal grandparents, Lashonda Ware (Marvin Ware) and Chris Daniels; his paternal grandparents, Sandra James (Mary Tiller) and Fredrick Cummings, Sr.; his paternal great-grandmother, Meltonia James; his maternal great-grandmother, Carolyn Byrd; and a host of devoted uncles, aunts, cousins, extended family members, classmates, and friends.

Hi Mommy, Daddy, and everyone I love,

It's me, Da'Quan ❤️

I know you can't see me, but I'm okay. I'm in a beautiful place filled with bright colors, happy songs, and sunshine that never goes away. It feels a little like my favorite shows — full of music, smiles, and gentle hugs. Sometimes I hear melodies that sound just like the songs we used to enjoy together, and they make me think of home. Please don't be sad for me. I'm not hurting. I'm not tired. I'm wrapped in warmth and love every single day. I get to play in fields that sparkle like morning light, and when you hear a sweet little tune in your heart, that's me sending you a smile. Thank you for every cuddle, every laugh, every time you held my hand. Thank you for loving me so big. I carry that love with me — it shines brighter than any star in the sky. When you see rainbows, hear children laughing, or a favorite song starts playing out of nowhere... that's my way of saying, "Hi! I'm still with you." I'll be watching over you, cheering you on, and waiting for the day we hug again.

Until then...

- 🎵 Keep singing
- ☀️ Keep smiling
- ❤️ Keep loving

Because that's what you taught me.
Love forever and ever,

Da'Quan Lakeith Cummings, Jr.
