

Oneda Anderson
"Mamaneat"

February 25, 1922 - November 25, 2016

Matthew 5:4
*Blessed are those who mourn,
 for they will be comforted.*

House of Clay

*I have Finished now with this house of clay,
 Please kindly and gently lay it away and let me rest
 From this life of pain, toiling in sunshine,
 Storms and rain, tryin to help the sick and the poor
 And turning no needy from my door;
 I have started to do My Master's work
 and never a duty did I shirk;
 Many times I was misunderstood
 when I had done the best that I could.
 I am tired now, so let me rest.
 Don't cry, don't you know God knows best?
 Please, no sad hearts, no hung down heads,
 Don't weep for me I am not dead.
 I have another house you know;
 Where only God's redeemed can go,
 I do not need this house of clay
 So tenderly, carefully, lay it away.*

To My Family

"You know I've lived to be a great great great grandmother.
I have heard and seen many things and felt as much.
But if I'm gone my worries are over now.
I have set what I could in order.
I have done all that I could with what I had for my family.
But my Love is more than the little
I had to give.
My Love is not based on who visits or how much you've done for me...
I Love You All because you are my family.
This is what I want to tell ALL OF YOU listen and learn, Love all your children
(I LOVED ALL OF MINE)
and raise them right, And to the children
Love and Respect your Mother & Father
When they teach you right...
All of you stay out of trouble and live peacefully..because God sees, hears,
and knows all things.
I LOVE ALL OF YOU, I REALLY DO...
Until we meet again-Goodbye with Love
-Mamaneat-
