

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Forever in your heart when you speak of me,
Speak not with tears.
For thoughts of me should not be sad.
Let memories of the time we shared give you comfort.

For my life was rich because of you.
And though for now I had to part,
Although to part I did not choose;
I'll be with you along life's path,
Forever in your heart.

HER LIFE and legacy

Laura Dalloul, 59, of Lexington, South Carolina, passed away peacefully on February 23, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family. Born on January 24, 1967, in Columbia, South Carolina, Laura was the cherished daughter of JoAnn and David Sturkie.

Laura was a loving and caring angel whose kindness knew no bounds. She had a heart for others and would do anything she could to lend a helping hand, offer a listening ear, or brighten someone's day with her warm smile. Her compassion and generosity left a lasting mark on everyone blessed to know her. She was simply unforgettable a beautiful soul whose presence brought comfort, laughter, and light.

She made her home in Lexington, South Carolina, where she built a life centered on love, family, and friendship. Above all, Laura treasured her family.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory her devoted husband, M. Nabil Dalloul; her beloved sons, Joshua Kramer and Ramzi Dalloul; her brother, Mike (Rhonda) Sturkie; and her sister, Debra (Kirk) Beasley. She also leaves behind her two adoring French bulldogs, Chloe and Millie, who were constant companions and brought her endless joy, along with a host of other loving relatives and dear friends who will miss her beyond measure.

Laura's legacy of love, compassion, and selflessness will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. Though she is no longer with us in body, her spirit will forever remain a guiding light to those she touched.
