God's Garden

God looked around His Garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this earth and saw your loving face.
He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest.
His Garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain,
He knew you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough, the hills too hard to climb,
He whispered "Peace be thine" and gave you wings to fly.
When we saw you sleeping so calm and free of pain,
We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again.
You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide,
You live on through your children, you're always by our side.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

THE LIFE Celebrating & LEGACY

With grateful hearts for a life well lived, the family of Brenda Blount announces her peaceful transition on August 14, 2025. Born on November 4, 1947, in Kansas City, Missouri, to Gladys Howard and Carl Everett, Brenda was a beloved daughter, mother, and friend whose kindness, humor, and unwavering love touched everyone she knew.

Brenda received her education at Lincoln High School and went on to serve her community through her work at Catholic Charities, where she dedicated many years before retiring. She had a gift for making people feel seen and supported—whether through a thoughtful call, a ride around town, or a few wise words exactly when you needed them. Brenda loved shopping, taking in the familiar sights of the city she called home, talking on the phone, and offering heartfelt advice that came from a place of experience and care.

Brenda was preceded in death by her parents, Gladys Howard and Carl Everett. She leaves to cherish her memory her beloved children: Eathean Fritz (Loretta), Darryl Fritz, Lettie Gilyard (Anthony), and Michael Everett; along with a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends. Her legacy of faith, family, and strength will continue to live on in those she loved so deeply.
