Remember me when I am gone
But not with sorrow, pain, and grief
Think of me as a turning leaf
That in the winter falls from its branch
To be born again in spring
And live forever in your hearts.

P A N D O R A M O S E S

Pandora was born December 10, 1963, to Floyd Scarborough and Fannie Mae McGill Scarborough in Lynchburg, South Carolina. Pandora was a graduate of Mount Pleasant High School and attended Morris College, where she met and married David Moses. She enjoyed life, always laughing and talking with people.

Pandora “Pennie” leaves to cherish her memories: one daughter, Joanna Jenkins (Trell); three grandchildren, Lanai Moses, Tianna Jenkins, and Quintrell Jenkins; two great grandchildren, Kamryn Moses and Kaiden Moses. She also leaves precious memories of love with one sister, Lora Dean James, and two brothers, Charles (Mildred) Scarborough, and Johnnie (Diane-deceased) Scarborough.

Pandora was preceded in death by her husband, David Moses; her parents, Floyd and Fannie Mae Scarborough; two brothers, Floyd Scarborough Jr. and Joe Nathaniel Scarborough, and three sisters, Laura Mae Wilson, Gwendolyn Brown, and Evadene Legrant.

Pennie was the baby of our family; we loved her so much, but death is not proud. God gave her extra time with all of her health issues. Finally, God said, “It’s time to come home and rest.”
