

Flower Bearers

Friends & Family

When you remember me, remember who I was
A husband a brother, a grandpa, a father who stepped up.
Remember my jokes, my laugh, my whistle,
My smile, that never let up.
Do not remember me in sadness
For there is nothing here to grieve,
My body may have run its course,
But my soul has been set free
So send me off with laughter and with love,
And maybe even a song
Shed the tears you must,
But don't let them last too long
Because I'm always with you
Even when I seem so far
I'll be in the memories we shared,
The family we built, and deep inside your heart
