Mrs. Juanita W. Love, 82, of Charlotte, North Carolina, peacefully entered eternal rest on December 1, 2025. She was born on March 16, 1943, in Camden, South Carolina, to the late Rosetta and Frank White. Juanita lived a life rooted in love, faith, strength, and resilience. She was a breast cancer survivor, she faced every challenge with courage and an unwavering belief in God's promise.

She worked faithfully for 31 years at Merita Bakery as an Assembly Line Technician. Her dedication, reliability, and warm spirit made her a treasured member of her work family.

In 1966, she united in marriage with the love of her life, James Lee Love. Together they shared 59 beautiful years of marriage, raising a close-knit family that continues to honor her legacy.

Juanita is survived by her brother, John Henry White, who continues to honor her memory.

Juanita leaves to cherish her memory to her devoted husband, James Lee Love; her children, Romma Love Hines, Emmanuel Love (Cindy Love), and Brenda Love; and her grandchildren, Erica Hines, Octavia Elizabeth, Jordan Love, Saige Love, and Jameson Crawford. She is also lovingly remembered by her great-grandson, Jaylen Baker, and her great-great-granddaughter, Azari Simmons, along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends who held her dear to their hearts.

She is preceded in death by her sisters, Janie White Burroughs, Lizzie Aaron, and Cora White, and her brother Eugene White.

Juanita will be remembered for her gentle spirit, her strength, her love for family, and her devotion to Christ. She often shared her favorite scripture, John 3:16, a reflection of the faith she carried throughout her life: “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

HER LEGACY CONTINUES THROUGH EVERY LIFE SHE TOUCHED.

When I'm Gone

*“When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile
Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, at the close of the day
Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.”*
