

IN LOVING MEMORY
OF

TO THOSE WHOM I LOVE &
THOSE WHO LOVE ME

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do, You mustn't
tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.
I gave you my love, and you can only guess How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must, Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and a
'Welcome Home'*

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family of Jason Graves would like to thank everyone for their acts of kindness during their bereavement. The family would like to thank the OSU ICU staff for all their support and care. We deeply appreciate all the love and support we received from F.A.L., Fighters against Lupus And Male Lupus Warriors. May God bless and keep you all.

OBITUARY

Jason Graves, 49 years old, passed away at OSU Medical Center after a long, hard fought battle with Lupus.

Jason was born July 13, 1975 in Columbus, Ohio to Richard and Marsha Williams. Jason graduated Centennial High School in 1993 and went on to attend college at Devry. Jason married Aeratina Chandler on February 17, 2012.

Jason loved spending time with his family. Family vacations were a must on his list. His favorite place to visit was Miami, Florida. Jason's second love was sports. He coached little league football for the Central Ohio Pirates. In the fall, his weekends consisted of going to local high school football and basketball games on Friday nights. Saturday mornings consisted of coaching his pirates then watching his beloved Michigan Wolverines! Also talking smack to all of his friends and family! On Sundays, he enjoyed watching his Denver Broncos. During the week, sports was still his priority. Jason loved watching his children play soccer, bowling, baseball, flag football and basketball.

Jason leaves to cherish his passing parents, Marsha and Richard Williams; wife, Aeratina Graves; children, Awnika and Jaylon; Godchildren, Xavier, Xandria, and Cameron; sisters, Jennifer and Michelle Williams; brothers, DeJuan Carter and Richard (Alicia) Williams; sisters-in-law, Andrea (Frank) Collins, Allison (Mason) Wiseman, and Brittany Dalton; brother-in-law, Kymm Chandler; nieces, Makayla, Te'Miyah, Honey, Delilah, and Hazel; nephews, Roy, Kaviaughn, Micho, Quincy, Klayton, and Tavion; best friends, Scottie Scott and Jerome Brown; and a host of other relatives and friends.
