ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of Nicholas Jamaal Carter Sr. extends our deepest gratitude for the overwhelming outpouring of love, prayers, and support during this difficult time. Whether you called, texted, visited, sent flowers, brought food, or simply held us in your thoughts. Every act of kindness has brought comfort.

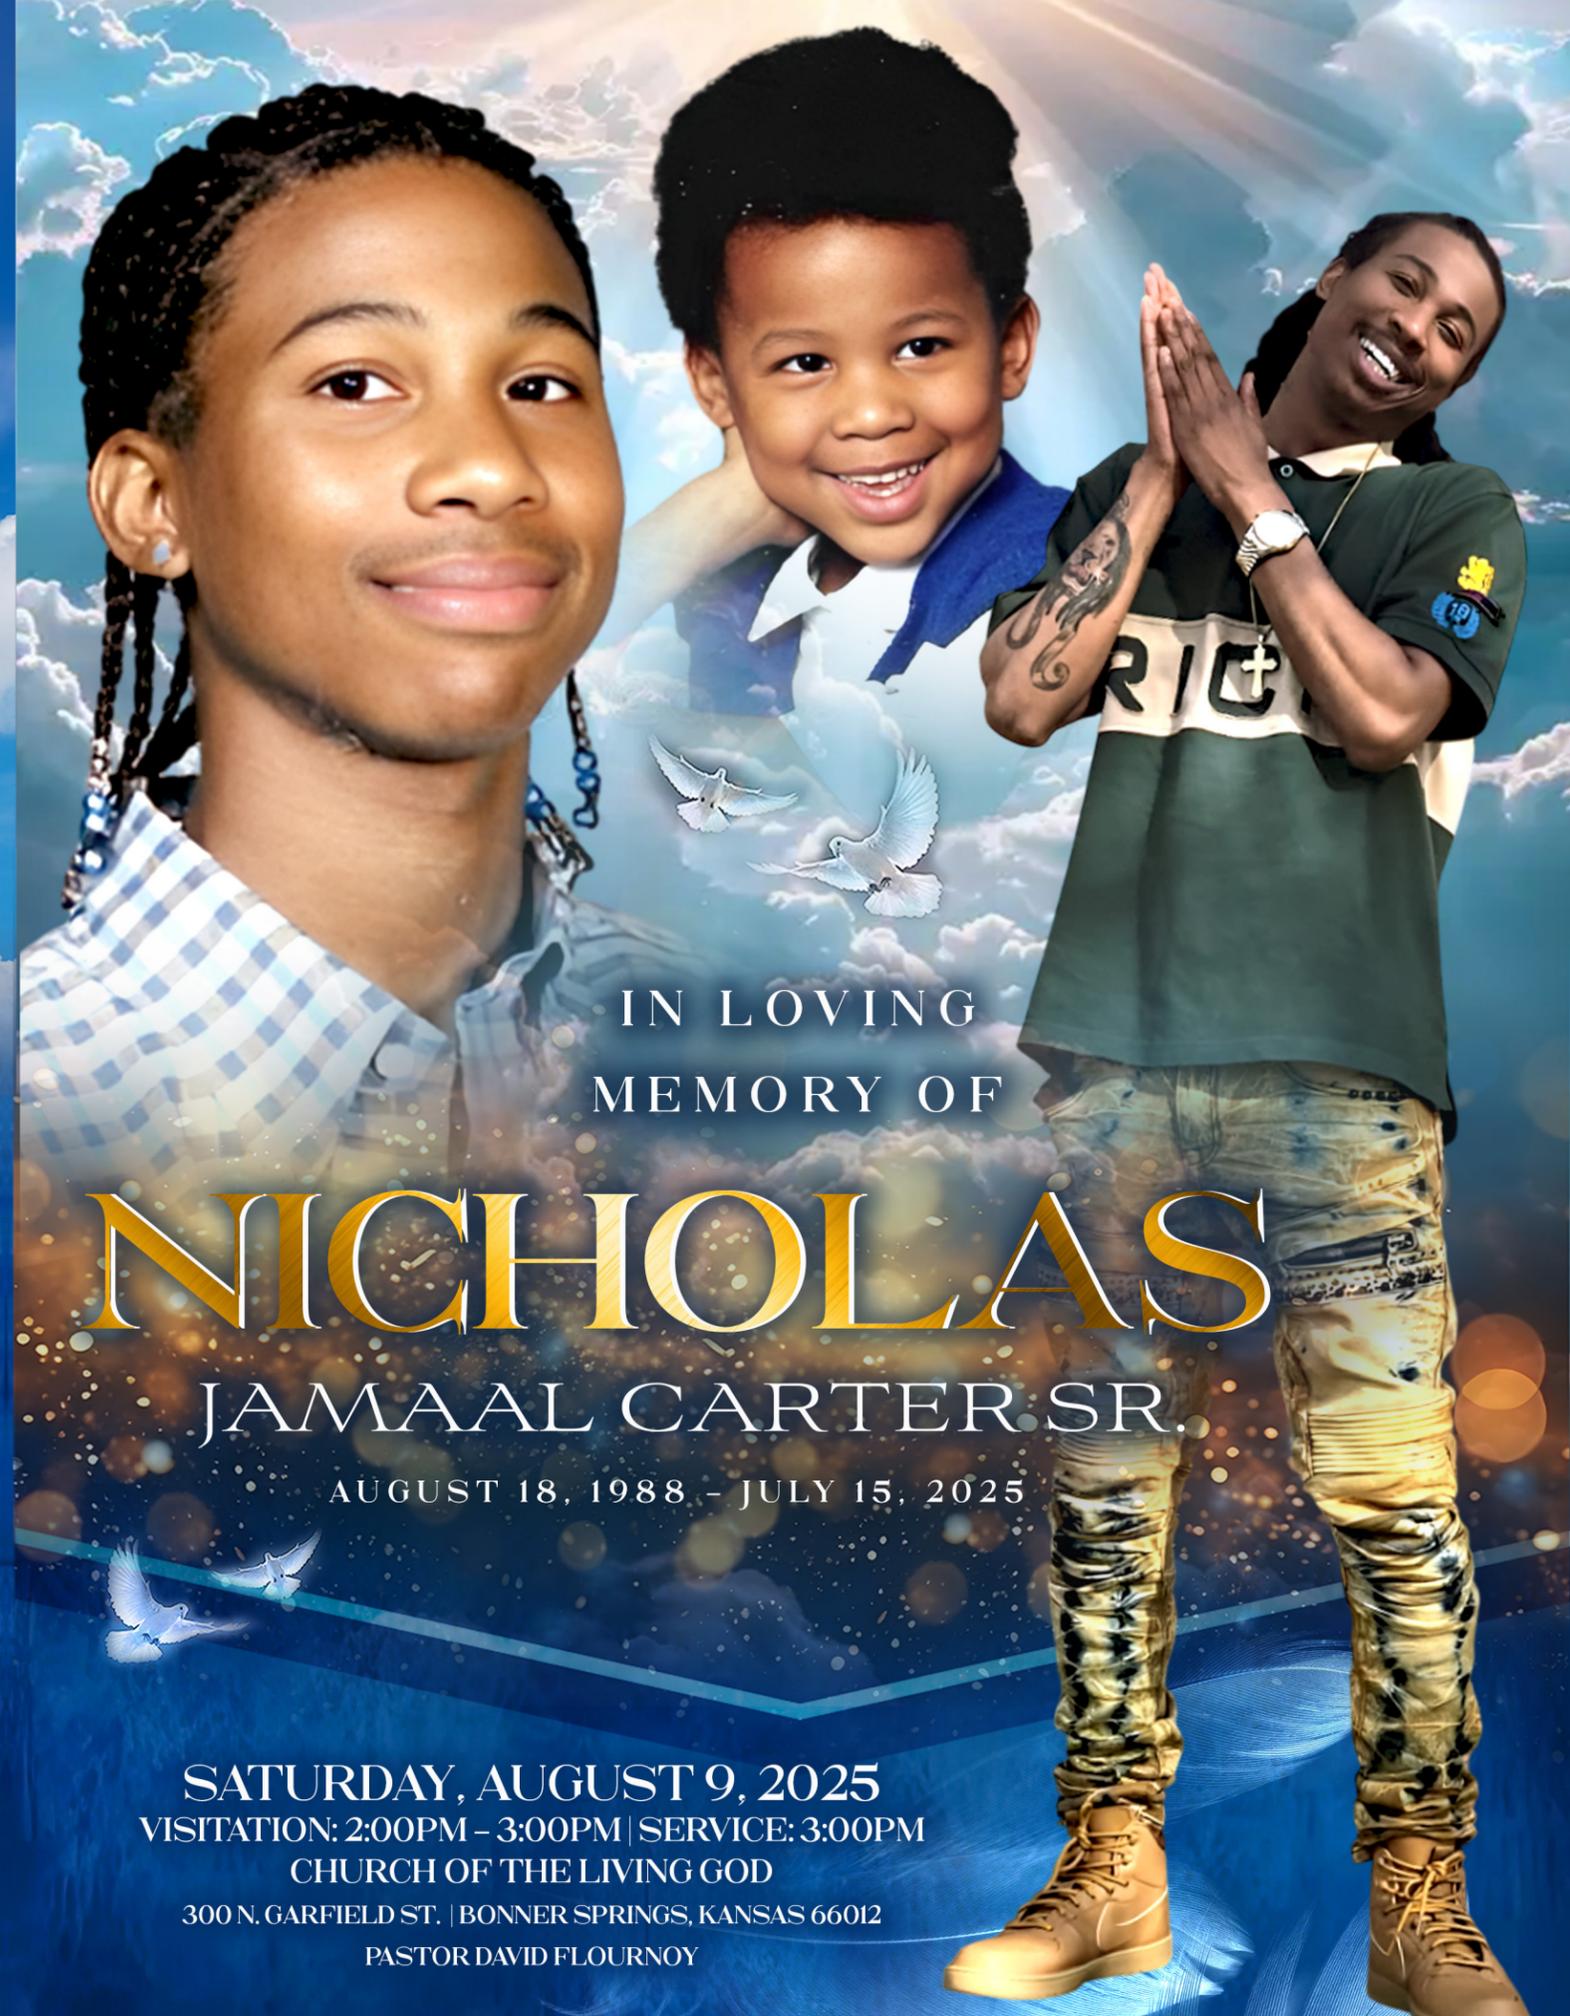

We are especially grateful to those who stood beside us as we planned his home going celebration, and to all who shared memories that reminded us how deeply Nick was loved. Your presence and words have been a reminder that we are not alone in our grief.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you for walking with us during this season. May God bless each of you for the love you've shown.

JAMAAL CARTER SR.

Nicholas Jamaal Carter Sr., 36, passed away on July 15, 2025, at Eastwood Crossings Apartments in Kansas City, MO.

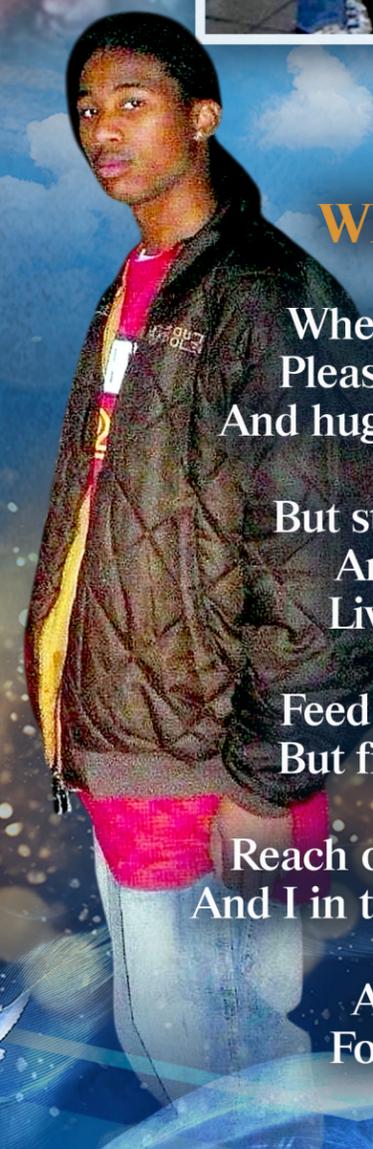

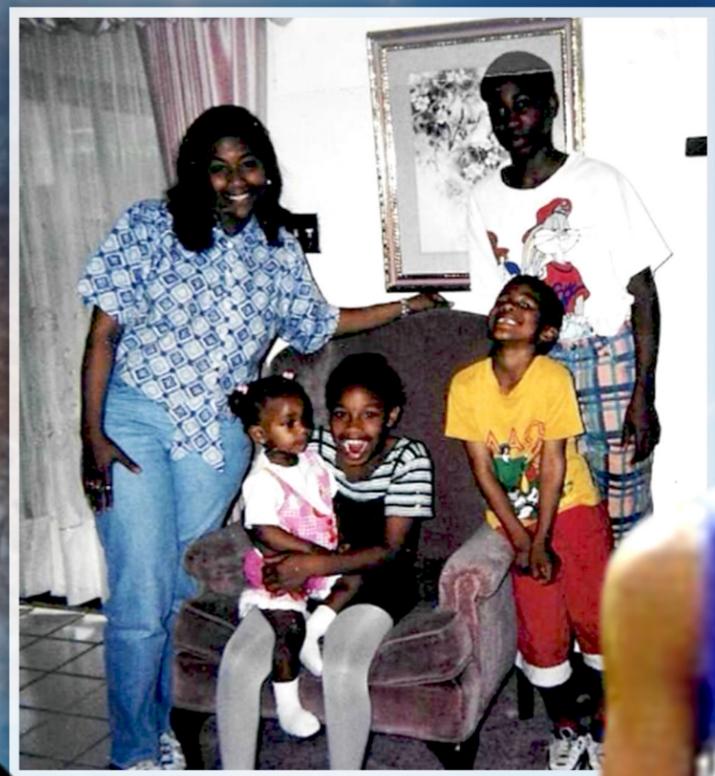

He was born on August 18, 1988, in Kansas City, Missouri to Warren Carter Sr. and Kelley Fitzpatrick. He grew up in Kansas City, KS.

He graduated from Washington High School in Kansas City, Kansas. After high school, he began work in logistics and warehouse operations, where he was employed for several years across different companies. He was deeply involved in his family's life, always showing up to support his children at their games, birthdays, and school events. He loved spending time with family at gatherings and celebrations. He also participated in stage plays, community theater, and musical adventures, including writing and performing his own rap music--sharing his creativity and passion with everyone around him.

He was preceded in death by his paternal and maternal grandparents, as well as his three baby girls.

He is survived by his mother, Kelley Fitzpatrick, and father, Warren Carter Sr. His Children: Jamon, Nicholas Jr., Andreas (Andrea), Ayannah, Ahkayla (Cia B.), Aniya, Czar (Kiki), Rih'Lin (Brittiany), and Kennedy (Kayla). Brothers: Montez Tatum, Warren Carter Jr., and Ryan Townsend. Sisters: Monyette Riddick, Sasha Carter, Kalenna Coleman, Ke'la Carter, and a host of other relatives, friends, and bonus children.

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you for a little while
 Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
 And hug your sorrow to you through the years,

 But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
 And for my sake and for my name
 Live on and do all things the same,

 Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
 But fill each waking hour in useful ways,

 Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
 And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;

 And never, never be afraid to die
 For I am waiting for you in the sky!
