

Poem by O2

My dawg even though you have fallen, your star will still shine. Even though you left us your forever on our mind we had good times, bad times up and down but we found no problem we couldn't get around. Stay 10 toes down champ, your memories will forever live on my dawg. I love you best friend.

Obituary

Malik Danny-Dially Thiam was born July 22, 1997, in Cincinnati, Ohio, and passed away January 7, 2025. A vibrant soul. Malik lived his life to the fullest, embracing his passions for boxing, breeding dogs, and cracking jokes. He was known for his jokes, bringing joy to those around him.

Malik was a devoted father to his children Malik Jr. and Ariel who he had with Megan Horne. Within the 8 years shared the two children gave Malik a different view on life and made him become a better man for his children. Malik found immense happiness in being a parent.

Malik is survived by his loving parents Beverly and Alassane Thiam alongside his siblings: Precious Tapp, Diontae Page, Naje'la Lowe, Lala Tapp, Mamadou, Fatou Kine Adja Dieme, and Mame Die, alongside a host of cousins, aunts, and uncles, and all the friends along the way who became family.
